Sillers Manager Of Pools

Park Board Names Him And Makes Plans For Opening Ceremony May 26

Sedalians who haven't had the chance to get their feet wet in a city swimming pool for some time, will now have that opportunity between May 27 and Labor Day, September 4, this being the dates for the opening and closing of the Liberty Park and Hubbard Park swimming pools.

They were recently constructed as a result of a bond issue passed by the citizens of Sedalia in November, 1947.

On Friday night, May 26, day before the official opening of the city pools, an opening ceremony will be held, at which time a water safety program will be conducted.

The Sedalia Park Board has announced that P. A. Sillers, 403 West Fourth street, will be the executive manager in charge of both pools. Last August, Mr. Sillers conducted a survey of swimming pools all through the states of Missouri and Kansas.

Principal at Horace Mann

Mr. Sillers, who is married and has an 18-month-old daughter, Anne, came to Sedalia nine years ago, and taught school at Smith-Cotton high school. Since the fall of 1947, Mr. Sillers has been the principal at Horace Mann school. According to the park board, minor work such as putting in window screens, and the placing of bath window shades, will be done in the near future. Mr. Sillers said rental towels, rental swimming suits and baskets have been purchased.

Hours To Be Open

Through week days, the pools will be opened at 9:00 o'clock in the morning until noon, then will be re-opened at 1:00 o'clock in the afternoon and closed at 10:00 at night. On Saturday and Sunday of each week, the pools will be opened at 1:00 o'clock in the afternoon and closed at 10:00 o'clock at night.

Tickets will be printed for the pools. An adult season ticket will cost $7.50, for a child $5.00, and a parent season ticket, $3.80. At Hubbard Park pool, the season tickets will be somewhat cheaper. For the adults, it will be $5.00, children $3.00, and parent season tickets $2.50. Single admission charge to the Liberty Park pool will be 39 cents for adults and 15 cents for children. At Hubbard, the adult price will be 30 cents, and 15 cents for children.

A parent, or chaperone ticket is one given at a reduced rate, so the adult may look after the child. Both may get in the water. Mr. Sillers said he plans to have swimming classes four mornings during each week. He also said, life guards who have Red Cross senior life saving certificates, will be on duty at both pools.

20 Moberly Citizens Ill

MOBERLY, Mo., April 12.—(AP)—State and city health officials are investigating the illness of more than 20 Moberly citizens who were stricken after eating pie purchased at several grocery stores and downtown lunch counters.

Three Moberly physicians here reported that they had treated more than 20 patients. Others who became ill Saturday and Sunday, recovered without seeking medical attention.

At least one patient required hospitalization. Two physicians said they had patients who were "pretty sick" and unable to work. Apparently all of the persons who became ill ate banana or coconut cream pies.

City Manager H. P. Phelan said an investigation is being made. Samples of the pie were collected by City Sanitary Inspector Webster Scott. State health department representatives were here Monday to take samples to Jefferson City for testing.

City Physician H. C. Griffiths, who had nine pie-eating patients during the weekend, said the illness could have been caused by "carrier contamination."

Loan to Maryville

WASHINGTON, April 12.—(AP)—The general services administration allotted a loan of $2,040 yesterday to Maryville, Mo., for water supply facilities, the total estimated cost of the project there is $55,000.

To Manage Pools

P. A. Sillers, 403 West Fourth street, who has been appointed to be the executive manager of the newly constructed Liberty Park and Hubbard Park swimming pools in Sedalia. Mr. Sillers is the principal at Horace Mann school.

Only 2 Weeks In Which to File For Office

Many Republicans For Committee Men And Women

Filing for nominations for public office has been slow in recent weeks and there are only two weeks left for prospective candidates to make up their minds and have their declaration filed with County Clerk James Green. The last day for filing is April 25.

Tuesday morning the clerk was busy opening letters from many Republicans filing for county committee men and women. Apparently a drive was staged in the past few days by the county chairman, Carl G. Schrader to get a committee man and woman in each precinct of the county, from the filings that morning.

Filings

Probate Judge: A. M. Harlan, Democrat.

County Treasurer: Frank L. Wagner, Republican.

County Clerk: James H. Green, Republican; Asbury Goodnight, Democrat.

Judge of Magistrate Court: William W. Blain, Republican.

Judge of Western District: Asa Elliott, Democrat.

Presiding Judge: William L. Marlin, Democrat.

Judge of Eastern District: E. L. Birdsong, Democrat.

Prosecuting Attorney: William F. Brown, Democrat.

State Representative: Dan D. Doty, Democrat.

Registrars: Mrs. John S. Devine, Democrat of third ward; Mrs. Robert Phelan, Democrat of third ward; Mrs. J. C. Saunders, Democrat of the fourth ward; Mrs. Alice W. ## Report Seeing Oil Slick, Life Raft in Baltic

May be U. S. Plane Disabled Recently By The Russians

STOCKHOLM, April 12.—(AP)—Sweden sent a mild protest to the U. S. embassy here today against violation of her territory by U. S. rescue planes searching for an American navy patrol plane.

The foreign office said that some rescue planes had passed over "the forbidden area around Karlskrona," Sweden's biggest naval base on the Baltic.

Sight Oil Slick
WIESBADEN, Germany, April 12.—(AP)—The crew of an American search plane today reported the sighting of an oil slick, and what appeared to be a life raft, in the Baltic sea area where a U. S. navy plane is missing.

The search B-17, piloted by Capt. Santa M. York of Raleigh, N. C., scanned the seas off Bornholm island, Denmark, for six hours and returned to Copenhagen late in the day when its fuel ran low.

Air Force headquarters here quoted Sgt. Winthrop Maddox of Griffin, Ga., a member of York's crew as saying: "It looked like a life raft to me. It was partly submerged in the center of an oil slick. The yellow color showed up and it looked like it might have been equipment off an airplane."

York said he saw debris but no signs of life.

Oil Slick on Water

An oil slick is left on the water by sinking planes or vessels. The plane sought is a four-engine Privateer, which left Wiesbaden Saturday for Copenhagen and may have been disabled, air officers here fear, by Russian gunfire.

The search plane's reports did not raise much hope for the missing crew of ten. A Danish pilot who went to the scene said he believed the American pilot might have been misled by a buoy placed by the Russians to mark dumped mustard gas.

York's Statement

"I dropped everything except the kitbag into the sea to keep flying as long as possible, but at last I had to give up because fuel was running low."

"Immediately before I set a course for Copenhagen, a Danish minesweeper reached the spot and picked up some of what I thought was debris. The Danes reported by radio that the first thing they picked up was a wooden box, used by fishermen for storing fish."

An Associate Press correspondent flew out from Roenne, Bornholm island, and saw nothing but water and other searching planes and vessels.

Hendren Takes Smith's Part

ELVINE, Mo., April 12.—(AP)—The chairman of the state Democratic committee has defended Gov. Forrest Smith's administration as one of strict law enforcement.

John H. Hendren of Jefferson City told members of the St. Francois county Young Democrat Donkey club here last night that metropolitan Missouri newspapers were just trying to discredit the Democratic party by attacks on Democratic leaders.

"Our leaders have always enforced all of the laws and stand today for fearless administration of justice," he said, without making any direct reference to the gangster killings in Kansas City last week.

Mr. Cochran formerly was sports editor of the Kansas City Journal-Post, and the Chicago American and was supervising sports editor of all Heart newspapers, with offices in New York. He also owned a farm a mile south of Ottumwa. For the past five years he has been writing for Warner Bros. and Universal studios in Hollywood and also has aided in direction of several motion pictures. Two years ago they built a home at Carmel-by-the-Sea, Calif., where they reside when he is not at the studios.

But even if these methods could be used in the Adirondacks, government experts are not sure they would work with the coydog, doyle, coyog or whatever you want to call the cross-breed.

In recent years the animal has been attacking deer, livestock and poultry in increasing numbers in Lewis, Franklin, Essex and St. Lawrence counties, N. Y.

At the request of New York authorities, the service sent a hunter into the Adirondacks to train employees in coping with the new menace. Some of the beasts were killed.

They vary in color from red to brown to white. Some betray a chow ancestry. Others have strong hints of the shepherd or hound. All resemble the coyote more strongly than the dog.

Heads Rotary

Kenneth U. Love, 422 West Sixth street, advertising manager of the Sedalia Democrat-Capital, who was elected president of the Sedalia Rotary club Tuesday. He will assume the office in June, succeeding Oscar DeWolf whose term expires then.

Request For Grand Jury in Slaying Cases

Rabbi Mayerberg States Gambling Joints Are Tipped

KANSAS CITY, April 12.—(AP)—Rabbi Samuel S. Mayerberg asked Gov. Forrest Smith today to call a grand jury to investigate the police board and members of the police department here.

Mayerberg, who carried on a campaign against the late Boss Tom Pendergast rule in his heyday of the 1930s, said he "happened to know" that every time the police planned a raid on gambling joints in Kansas City they were spoiled by tip-offs.

"I hope," he said in his letter to the Governor, "you will not consider me presumptuous when I say to you, Dear Governor, that your telegrams after murders are committed are not a sufficient exercise of gubernatorial responsibilities placed upon you by the laws of Missouri. The time to enforce the law is before the crime is committed."

Asked For Meeting

Circuit Judge Ray G. Cowan today asked representatives of law enforcement agencies to meet with him tomorrow to discuss the advisability of calling a county grand jury.

If it is determined that a grand jury should be called, Judge Cowan said it would include an investigation of the Binnaggio-Gargotta slayings.

"In view of various investigations under way by the agencies invited," Judge Cowan said, "I want them to determine whether they have any evidence or information to put before a grand jury that would warrant its call."

Writer Here on Way to Europe

Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Cochran of Carmel-by-the-Sea, California, are spending a week with Mrs. Cochran's mother, Mrs. R. J. Martin, 617 West Fifth street. Mr. and Mrs. Cochran are on their way to Europe. They will sail from New York on the Queen Elizabeth April 28 and spend six months touring in their automobile in the British Isles and Norway, Sweden, Finland, Denmark, Germany, Belgium and France. They will return to the United States in September.

Mr. Cochran formerly was sports editor of the Kansas City Journal-Post, and the Chicago American and was supervising sports editor of all Heart newspapers, with offices in New York. He also owned a farm a mile south of Ottumwa. For the past five years he has been writing for Warner Bros. and Universal studios in Hollywood and also has aided in direction of several motion pictures. Two years ago they built a home at Carmel-by-the-Sea, Calif., where they reside when he is not at the studios.

Extend Search For Slayings to Chicago

KANSAS CITY, April 12.—(AP)—Police turned to Chicago today in search for a clue to the gangland slayings of Charles Binaggio, north side political boss, and his ex-convict henchman, Charles Gargotta.

Frank Collins, chief of detectives, said he was sending a ballistic expert to Chicago with the eight bullets taken from the two bodies and those found at the slaying a year ago of Wolf C. Rimann, a Kansas City sports figure, to compare them with slugs taken from gang victims there.

Truman Ends Fifth Year in Office Today

Ready to Carry Counter Offensive Against GOP Attacks

By Jack Bell

WASHINGTON, April 12.—(AP)—President Truman ends his fifth year in office today in what his friends describe as a confident, happy warrior mood.

The sun-tanned President, fresh from a vacation in Florida, apparently is ready to carry to the people a counter-offensive against Republican attacks on his secretary of state and other GOP assaults.

Picturing the President as in vigorous health, Senator Lucas of Illinois, the Democratic leader, gave a reporter this description of Mr. Truman:

"He is confident and in a happy frame of mind. He thinks conditions throughout the country are good. He thinks world problems are no insoluble. He is ready to fight for his program."

Republican Expression

A Republican reaction to Mr. Truman was expressed by Senator Brewster of Maine, chairman of his party's senatorial campaign committee.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—(AP)—A large American-made globe was presented to President Truman today in memory of his fifth anniversary in the White House.

The globe, 32 inches in diameter and somewhat larger than the one now standing in the president's office, was the personal gift of Louis Johnson, secretary of defense, and Gordon Gray, retiring secretary of the army.

The two officials also gave Mr. Truman a model of a French 75 gun which he fired as an artillery captain in the First World War, and a model of a modern American-made field piece of the same calibre.

"We wish Mr. Truman — but not his program — a long life," Brewster said. "We still consider him the Republicans' best asset."

"We think it is obvious that he is going to campaign for a Truman Congress, since the Democratic 81st Congress has been no better, from his standpoint, than the Republican 80th. We welcome him into the battle on those terms."

To Head Westward

Just about the time he is celebrating his 66th birthday next May 8 Mr. Truman will be heading westward for the first political stumping of a campaign patterned after his surprisingly successful drive for the presidency in 1948.

The President's friends and foes agree generally that this tour into the middle and far west — ending with a party rally in Chicago May 15 — will give the country some idea what to expect from this year's campaign.

Again it will be Harry S. Truman talking to the people — but there may be a difference.

This time he isn't the underdog in a political campaign. He has an election victory over the Re-

Sedalia Bank and Trust Co. Adds C. W. Mathieson to Board

C. W. Mathieson

C. W. Mathieson, 901 West Broadway, was unanimously elected at a regular meeting of the board of directors of the Sedalia Bank and Trust Company, to fill the vacancy on the board caused by the death of John McGrath.

An election to fill the office of president, which Mr. McGrath held, has not yet been called. Mr. McGrath's son John J. McGrath, is executive vice president of the bank.

Mr. Mathieson is executive vice president of Town & Country Shoes, Inc., which operates shoe factories in Sedalia, Warrensburg and Odesa. Other members of the board are: J. E. Cannaday, C. L. Carter, H. C. Feuers, D. S. Lamm, J. J. McGrath, E. W. Thompson, George H. Trader and B. C. Claycomb.

Talk on Value Of Community Theatre Group

The Sedalia Lions Club members at its regular noonday meeting, today, at Hotel Bothwell, heard Michael J. Bogutski, local attorney, speak on the Community Theatre and the Pettis Players, amateur theatrical group.

In his talk he said Sedalia was now ready for a Community Theatre and such a project and organization will be a benefit to the city.

Bogutski also told of the recreation enjoyed from such a project for those participating and said it furnishes real live entertainment to the public. He reviewed in part the work of the Pettis Players and told of the recent production the group staged twice, several weeks ago.

He was introduced by Bernard Stanfield, program chairman for the meeting.

Dr. Carl Siegel gave a brief report on the Cancer program and drive which has started. He explained Sedalia and Pettis county's goal has been set at $3,289 of which sixty per cent remains in the county and the remainder going to the National Foundation to be used in its fight against Cancer.

It was announced by Frank Deady, entertainment chairman, a dance would be held on Thursday night, April 27.

Guests today were Adolph Glenn, former president of the local club, who now resides in San Diego, Calif., guest of W. H. Bunn; Malcolm Higgins, St. Louis, of Leo Bopp; Lawrence Barrett, Marshall, of Harold Seaberg; Ralph Becker with the Industrial Loan and Investment Company, was introduced as a new member of Abe Silverman.

Harold Seaberg, vice-president, presided over the meeting in the absence of A. W. Haller, president.

The President's friends and foes agree generally that this tour into the middle and far west — ending with a party rally in Chicago May 15 — will give the country some idea what to expect from this year's campaign.

Again it will be Harry S. Truman talking to the people — but there may be a difference.

Social Events

Miss Mossie Marie Saunders, daughter of Mrs. D. L. Saunders, 605 Madison street, Jefferson City, became the bride of Mr. William A. Isbell, son of Mrs. John Cocron, of St. Louis at 10:00 o'clock Saturday morning, at the First Baptist church in Jefferson City. The Rev. James F. Heaton read the single ring ceremony before an altar setting of Easter lilies and lighted white tapers in cathedral standards.

Karl Burkel at the organ played the nuptial music and accompanied Mrs. Delene Hickey who sang, "The Lord's Prayer," "Because" and "I Love You Truly." The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. J. C. Saunders, of Sedalia, chose for her wedding a dress of navy blue sheer with white and rhinestone trim with which she wore a hat of matching shade trimmed in gold, tiny white flowers and rhinestones. She carried a white Bible to which was attached a white orchid.

Miss Edith Fienstein, of Jefferson City, the bride's only attendant wore a street dress of char-treuse shade with a corsage of spring flowers.

Mr. Morris F. Isbell, of Raytown, O., brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Miss Juanita Schulte, of Fulton, niece of the bride, lighted the candles.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the home of the bride's mother.

Mr. Isbell travels for the Vieting Truck line and the bride is bookkeeper for the Power and Light company in Jefferson City. The couple will reside in Jefferson City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Saunders, 1001 South Vermont avenue, attended the wedding.

Mrs. W. E. Scotten, formerly of Sedalia, writes friends she is now House Mother of the Tri Delta Sorority on the campus of the New Mexico University at Albuquerque, N. M. Mrs. Scotten, widow of the late Judge W. E. Scotten, left Sedalia recently for Albuquerque to be with her daughter, Mrs. Allen McMullen and son, Corder.

The sorority has a beautiful new house which was opened January 1, this year. There are twenty-five young ladies, four house boys and one cook under Mrs. Scotten's supervision.

William Scotten, a son residing in Chicago, Ill., spent two weeks visiting with his mother, sister and brother at Albuquerque, returning to Chicago last Saturday.

CHURCH NEWS

The Ladies Aid of the St. Paul's Lutheran church will have its business and social meeting in the Sunday school room at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Hostesses will be Mrs. W. H. Harms and Mrs. M. J. Kuhlman.

The Woman's Guild of St. John's Evangelical and Reformed church of Florence met April 5, for a monthly meeting with 16 members and one visitor present.

The devotionals was in charge of Mrs. Clarence Bremer. Mrs. Ray Baughman, president, presided over the business meeting.

The guild is entertaining Company I at the Missouri Training school at Booneville on Saturday afternoon, April 29, from 1:00 to 4:00 o'clock.

The meeting was dismissed with the repeating of the Lord's Prayer.

The next meeting will be on May 3, with Mrs. Glenn Mertgen and Mrs. Wilbert Rodenbach as hostess.

Night Pictures Best

It is easier to photograph the Pavlov volcanoes, on the Alaskan peninsula, at night than in the daytime. Fog obscures them in daylight, but at night, with the aid of the midnight sun, visibility is fairly good.

Building Permit Issued

A building permit was issued Tuesday to Larry Blatterman, to construct a five-room house, bath, basement and attached garage at 1717 South Beacon avenue.

Bond Forfeited

John Hill, 420 West Clay street, arrested by the police on West Broadway and charged with careless driving, failed to appear in police court this morning. Judge Harry O. Berry ordered Hill's $25.00 cash bond forfeited.

Hill was arrested after he drove his car down Broadway at 50 miles per hour.

Traffic Cases

Six overtime parkers failed to appear in police court this morning, and their cash bonds of one dollar each were ordered forfeited by Judge Harry O. Berry.

Woman Takes $50,000 to Jail

Mrs. Elizabeth Spears, 50 (above), arrested at Atlanta, Ga., on charges of selling liquor without a license, counts some of the $50,000 she carried to jail in a flour sack. Detectives R. A. Boone and J. E. Sikes said they declined to allow her to post a cash bond because they thought it very unwise to allow her abroad with so much money, nor would they place her in a cell with run-of-the-mill inmates. She spent the night in an office. (AP Wirephoto)

Republican Women Elect

President, Miss Rose Leibbrand; city vice-president, Mrs. Sena Schutt; treasurer, Mrs. J. B. Ginn; secretary, Mrs. Hazel Licklider.

The retiring president, Mrs. L. H. Hodges welcomed about 50 members and presented information regarding national Republican principles. Following the election of officers, Mrs. Hodges presented Miss Hazel Palmer, who installed the newly elected officers in a short ceremony. An open forum was held with many members taking part in the questions brought up for discussion.

The next meeting of the Pettis County Republican Women's club will be held the second Tuesday in May when committees and other appointments will be announced by Miss Leibbrand, and delegates elected to the state convention of the Federated Women's Republican clubs of Missouri which will be held in June.

War Dads To Meet

The American War Dads and its auxiliary of Pettis county, will meet Friday evening at 6:45 o'clock, for a covered dish supper at the Legion hall, located at 114½ East Fifth street.

Sent to Jail

Freddie Gehlken and "Moose" Greer, charged with petit larceny in the city police court, were both sentenced to 30 days in the city jail Tuesday afternoon by Judge Harry O. Berry. The two were picked up by the police Saturday evening and held for investigation.

They were accused of taking several shirts from Montgomery-Ward Co. and J. C. Penney Co. store in Sedalia. Gehlken pleaded guilty to the charge, while Greer pleaded not guilty, and a hearing was held before Judge Berry in the Greer case.

W. A. McVey is President High School P. T. A.

Election Held at Regular Meeting; Talk by H. U. Hunt

W. A. McVey, 1607 East Broadway, was elected president of the Smith-Cotton High School Parent-Teacher Association for next year at the final meeting this year held Tuesday evening at the school. Other officers elected were: First vice president, Mrs. John Loague; second vice president, the Rev. J. W. Watts; secretary, Mrs. C. F. Scotten; treasurer, Gerhardt Jaeger, and chaplain, the Rev. Roy L. Bowers.

The program included a talk on "The School Situation" by Heber U. Hunt, superintendent of Sedalia schools; popular music by the Rhythmaires, directed by Miss Geraldine Teufel; a vocal solo by Don Broadus; and a tap dance by Dorothy Dey. Following the program and business meeting, members and visitors viewed the school work on display in the library.

Told of Building Program

Mr. Hunt, in discussing the building program now in progress, said that four years ago the limit, under existing laws, of 5% of the assessed valuation was voted. This amounted to $800,000. Plans at the time included a "dream school" to replace Broadway and Horace Mann, according to Mr. Hunt. The board of education was unable to go ahead with plans at the time because of scarcities and high prices. Hopes for federal building aid did not materialize.

Because of the growing enrollment and the fact that some buildings were "fire traps" it was necessary to obtain the best deal possible and go ahead. The new school, as originally planned, at present prices would have required $500,000 of the $800,000 available, he stated.

High School Program

Since 5/12 of the grades in Sedalia are housed in the high school, the board went more nearly "all out" for its building program, Mr. Hunt said. The $304,000 addition will include a little theater which will seat about 250 people, to be built at the southwest corner of the building; a large shop room on the south-east; two class rooms and two large study halls on the second floor, both adequately lighted; and eight additional class rooms on the third floor. These additions will make possible a junior college if there is a demand for it.

IN FASHION WHIRL—It was bound to happen. Singer Marguerite Piazza wears a "flying saucer" hat designed by Walter Florell in New York. The "saucers" look as if they might be battered down to double as ear muffs in cold weather.

later, Mr. Hunt said. A cafeteria, containing the latest type of equipment will be located thirty feet south of the building.

The speaker stated that the remainder of the $800,000 will provide an auditorium-gymnasium with connecting classroom on the west and two classrooms and a cafeteria on the east at Horace Mann; fireproofed stairways and hallways similar to those already installed at Whittier, at Horace Mann and Broadway; an auditorium-gymnasium at Jefferson school and classroom at Whittier, and a shop addition on the southwest corner at Hubbard.

Man Teachers Lost

In regard to the school levy, Mr. Hunt reminded the audience that he said in 1947 that if the levy failed the school system would lose twenty-five teachers. Instead, he said, fifty were lost, and only thirty-one of these were replaced. As a result, he said, there are no art teachers in the public schools and music is taught only half time. The high school has two industrial art teachers instead of three, and one music teacher instead of two and larger classes than we should have.

Salaries paid teachers in Sedalia are more than $600 per year less than the average salaries paid in the United States and more than $400 less than the average salary paid in first class high school in Missouri, Mr. Hunt declared. The average tax rate for schools in Missouri is $1.95, while that in Sedalia is only $1.29. He emphasized that if it were not for local married women who were able to qualify, Sedalia would not have teachers in its classrooms today.

Compiling Budget

The board of education, in compiling its budget for next year, had one of three choices, according to Mr. Hunt. These were: To operate on the revenue available, to operate as now with a deficit of about $35,000 paid out of our present balance; to provide the minimum for the additional enrollment next year and expand that deficit from eight to ten thousand dollars. The board voted to continue the present program and add possibly three or four teachers. Consequently, Mr. Hunt said, it will be necessary to spend forty or forty-five thousand dollars more than is taken in.

"We have tried to give the town the best school we could on the money that we must have, Mr. Hunt said. "We are still in the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools," he said, in referring to Kansas City's school problems, "but," he emphasized, "it can happen here! It will happen, unless Sedalia finds some way to finance the schools!"

Officers Installed

Numbers by the Rhythmaires, as announced by Leo Eickhoff, were "Basin Street Blues," "Quick Silver," with Miss Dey; "String of Pearls," with Don Broadus, soloist; and "John Silver."

Mrs. R. H. Rabourn, president, presided at the meeting. The invocation was given by the Rev. J. W. Watts, chaplain. Mrs. John Zulauf, program chairman, was in charge of the program.

The executive board, at a meeting earlier in the evening, voted to contribute $400 to the high school for new stage curtains for the auditorium. At this meeting, also, Mrs. Lloyd Kirkpatrick, Mrs. J. Eddie Duell, and the Rev. Mr. Watts were appointed to audit the treasurer's books.

• The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Truman Has Changed Since He First Entered the White House

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON, April 12 — Five years ago today, Harry Truman stood uneasily in the cabinet room of the White House taking the oath as President of the United States. He was a humble man, imploring the Lord for guidance and the American people for help.

A lot has changed since then. The wars then raging on two continents are officially ended, though they continue unofficially without loss of life. The men who saw Harry Truman take the oath and who helped him during those first trying days are largely gone now. Bob Hannegan, who put his friend in the White House almost with his own bare hands, is dead, saddened by the fact that the President had turned his back.

Three secretaries of state have also come and gone — Ed Stettinius, now dead; Jimmy Byrnes, now bitter; and George Marshall, now retired. Many of the President's close friends in the Senate have disappeared from his table, and the coterie surrounding Truman has grown smaller and smaller. The palace guard is as tight as a drum.

Jealous Palace Guard

It will be for history to evaluate the wisdom of Truman's policies and the efficacy with which they are carried out. It is too early to judge them now. But one factor now moulding the results which historians later must evaluate is the White House circle and its jealousy toward the outside world.

This zeal to knock off any man who even remotely resembles a rival to the President is the most important fact in the political life of the nation today.

It has been responsible for alienation of one of the strongest members of the Truman cabinet, former secretary of agriculture Clinton P. Anderson, now senator from New Mexico. And it is causing friction between the President and the Vice President today.

Those who do not know the little band of zealots around Truman would scarcely believe it, but they have convinced themselves and him that Alben Barkley at the age of 72 is a candidate for President. Furthermore, they have cooked up a tortured theory that Barkley took a young bride in order to demonstrate to the world that he was hale, hearty and able to run. They also suspect that Barkley's many speaking engagements are to build him up for 1952.

The broad-gauged Barkley, though well aware of this coolness, has chosen to ignore it. On the surface, his relations with the White House remain the same. But the old cordiality, the personal warmth between him and Truman is no more.

Will Truman Run Again?

It is not known, even by Truman's intimates, whether he intends to run in 1952. But it is definitely known that the palace guard is itching to have him run. Apparently the lush life of Key West and the White House is something they hate to contemplate losing.

This was why one year ago, the White House was anxious to have Paul Hoffman bow out as EC Administrator. He was becoming too popular, was feared as a Republican candidate. Today he is not considered so popular and is being urged to stay on. This was also why a weak Democratic candidate was left in the race against Senator Taft in Ohio. For Taft would be an easier presidential candidate to defeat than Eisenhower; but he would have no chance of the nomination if defeated in Ohio.

Jealousy is carried to such extremes that ex-White House counselor Clark Clifford recently cancelled an engagement his wife had made with the Clinton Anderson family to go to the Cherry Blossom Festival together. The Anderson and Clifford daughters had once been Cherry Blossom queens, but Clifford feared it would put him in wrong at the White House to be seen with the ex-secretary of agriculture, who committed the grave sin of being willing to run for vice president.

Hurting Foreign Policy

The most important result of this White House jealousy is in the field of foreign affairs, where Dean Acheson recalls all too vividly what happened to Jimmy Byrnes when he tried to conduct foreign policy without constantly consulting the White House.

In fact, it was Acheson who had to straighten things out between Truman and Byrnes when Jimmy made the mistake of announcing from London that he would make a broadcast to the American people. Truman hit the ceiling. He wanted no foreign policy statements except his own made to the American people.

All during the Byrnes regime, Gen. Vaughan kept needling his chief. "People are talking about the Byrnes policy," he would say. "They ought to be talking about the Truman policy." So only a few weeks after Byrnes' error in announcing a broadcast to the American people, a presidential cable went to General Marshall asking him to get ready to become secretary of state.

That is why Acheson's hands have been partially tied in defending himself from Senator McCarthy. He could have made a masterful presentation of the facts regarding other Presidents who withheld files from Congress, from George Washington to William Howard Taft.

And he could have made a brilliant, clarifying statement regarding the loyalty review boards and how they were staffed with Republicans. But he didn't.

Instead, Mr. Truman issued abrupt statements at Key West, ignoring the clarifying background arguments which would have materially helped the public understand the Truman-Acheson position.

A President is only as powerful as his public support. Congress knows this and begins to rebel the minute presidential popularity weakens. Today Truman's popularity was weakened — thanks largely to the band of jealous zealots around him in the White House.

Flying Saucers May be Part Of 'Nerve' War on Russians

By Bruce Blossat

The United States News, in a story that has all the earmarks of a carefully authenticated account, declares that "flying saucers" are real.

This doesn't square with official government statements, but the magazine gives a plausible explanation for the government's position.

The story says flying saucers are revolutionary aircraft combining features of fast jet planes and helicopters. They are said to conform to known principles of flying. The magazine adds they have been seen by "hundreds of competent observers," including high-ranking Air Force and Army officers.

It's pointed out that the U. S. Navy is itself building advanced models of a flying saucer type aircraft originally constructed and successfully test-flown by U. S. engineers back in 1942.

According to the most reliable witnesses of saucers in flight, they are circular in shape with a diameter of some 105 feet. They have what seem to be jet nozzles arranged around the saucer's outer rim. Their thickness is about 10 feet and they are built in layers.

Experts believe the nozzles, whose direction is variable, control the speed and course of flight. The saucers can climb straight up and can cruise at speeds ranging from 200 to 600 miles an hour. They can, it is presumed, land at speeds as low as 35.

In case this still all sounds like fantasy, U. S. News points out that highly trained scientists at the White Sands, N. M., proving ground for guided missiles, observed a saucer and tracked it for several minutes. They got reliable data on its size, speed, altitude and maneuverability.

Why, then, did the Air Force officially abandon its inquiry into the saucers and announce that thorough study had revealed no substance to any of the thousands and thousands of reports?

The magazine suggests the answer is that the Air Force knows where the saucers are coming from and is not concerned about them, as it would be if they were from Russia or possibly another planet.

The Air Force has denied emphatically that any secret project of its own is involved. But U. S. News notes that early experimenting with these revolutionary aircraft was done by the Navy, and that the Navy today gets millions of dollars for secret guided missile research, on which it gives no public accounting.

The conclusion is that our own Navy is responsible for this great mystery. Certainly the impression is gained that if U. S. naval experts are not responsible for the development, then some friendly power like Britain is. Britain, of course, is well-advanced in designing amazing new types of jet aircraft.

The average American has a right to be heartened by the prospect that radically different airplane designs on the flying saucer pattern offer promise of remarkable advances in the speed and safety of aviation.

But he ought to be almost as much gratified to learn that perhaps he hasn't been conjuring up Jules Verne style space ships after all. It's been the fashion of many seasoned observers to dismiss the flying saucer flurry as a sign of mass hysteria befitting the times. The ordinary citizen who may have spotted one of the things is beginning now to look fairly sane, if the U. S. News knows what it's talking about.

Fresh denials already have come from our military authorities all down the line. But they don't necessarily mean that this story is untrue. They may well indicate only that defense officials want to maintain substantial secrecy, while yet allowing enough information to leak out to keep Russia's nerves on edge.

Stretch Drive?

Congress, with three months' work behind it this year, has come to what is generally viewed as its halfway mark. And agreement is unanimous that this session has accomplished virtually nothing.

Of course, the same thing could have been said last season, but the lawmakers put on a burst of speed in the later months and ran off a creditable amount of legislation. Maybe we are in for another belated spurt this time.

If that comes to pass, it'll begin to look as if Congress has been influenced too sharply by the pennant-chasing tactics of the Boston Red Sox.

PAGAN PSYCHIATRY OFTEN DISRUPTIVE

We saw yesterday that many false gulfs had to be discarded. The conscience can be taught to approve diametrically opposite things. I said to a Hindu one day, "Suppose you broke caste, and no one would know it?" "But I would know it, for my conscience would trouble me if I broke caste," he replied. His conscience would trouble him if he broke caste, and mine would trouble me if I kept caste. Conscience will stand guard over the values you put into your moral nature. It is important what value you put there. The conscience should be trained at the feet of Christ; only then is it a safe guide.

A word of warning must be uttered against pagan psychiatrists, who finding persons at conflict with themselves, suffering from split personality—with ideals high and conduct low—try to unify the persons on the level of conduct, dismissing the whole world of moral ideals. This usually results in greater disruption—disunity—for a new conflict is introduced at the level of conduct. The moral world cannot be dismissed by a wave of the hand, or by a slick phrase of a pagan psychiatrist. Put out at the door, it will come back at the window. One such psychiatrist, a very outstanding man, urges women who are nervous and upset to find "a boy friend." Some of these women who had been given advice by this psychiatrist to practice adultery came in great distress to a ministerial friend of mine. Through him they found God, and are released and happy. The wife of this psychiatrist, divorced from him, because he naturally had acted on the advice he gave to others, came to this same friend, and she too found God and is radiant. The false advice given by this psychiatrist produced disunity in the personality, and broke up homes—his own included. The only possible level on which to be unified permanently is the level of your ideals. Everything else will let you down.

If you go to a psychiatrist go to one who has a Christian background and outlook. Such psychiatrists are the salt of the earth and help many to release. O God, my father, I see that amid all the ways of men Thou hast a way—the way that is written into the nature of reality. Help me to find that way that I may live, for I cannot fumble this business of living. Time is too short, and living too serious. In Jesus name. Amen.

The Doctor Says—

Presence of Gallstones Raises Question of Operation

BY EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

Gallstones are most common after thirty and especially between forty and fifty. Three-fourths of all cases are in women. The stones lie in or near the gall-bladder, which is a pear-shaped pouch lying under the liver on the right side a short distance below the ribs. It holds liquid called bile and it empties this material down into the small duct into the intestines. Stagnation of bile in the gall-bladder may lead to the formation of stones. Overweight, wearing of corsets, occupations requiring a leaning forward position and sagging of the abdominal organs are believed to lead to such stagnation.

Lack of exercise, particularly when combined with too much fondness for food, also favors the formation of stones. Infection in the gallbladder may also play a part. Many persons with gallstones have an increase of a substance called cholesterol in their blood and cholesterol is present in most gallstones.

Gallstones may be present without causing any symptoms. The most common early symptom, however, is indigestion. There is often a vague feeling of discomfort in the abdomen, a sense of fullness, a good deal of intestinal gas as sometimes nausea and vomiting occur. Often there is pain in the region of gallbladder or under the right shoulder in the back. Jaundice or a yellow color to the skin is not always present. A gallstone may get caught in the neck of the gallbladder or in the passageway going down to the intestines. When this happens there is severe pain called colic. The most important aid in diagnosing gallstones is the X-ray. Sometimes the stones can be seen in an ordinary X-ray picture; in many cases, however, a dye has to be given which fills the gallbladder and outlines the stones in a silhouette picture.

Factors Weighed

When gallstones are found the question comes up as to whether or not the gallbladder should be taken out by operation. This decision depends on how many attacks of colic there have been, what the symptoms are, whether there is infection present in the gallbladder, what the X-ray studies show, and the other things,

They Must be Overjoyed 'Down Under'

Distant Star

BY HERMINA BLACK

THE STORY: Clemency Norton is a nursery governess to Syrie and Joe Amberley's small daughter. She is a home body, a peace-loving person. The married couple to whom she is governess are people to whom she is devoted. She is a gentle, kind, and loving person. She is a home body, a peace-loving person. She is a gentle, kind, and loving person.

VI
A LONE with Syrie, Syrie turned back towards the house. "They reacted it in unbroken silence, and climbing the three shallow steps which led up to the veranda, she sat down on one of the garden chairs."

Syrie Amberley looked cool, and perfectly calm. "Well, here we are again, my dear-brother." She gave him a half ironic glance. "You have missed me?"

"There are various ways of missing people," she replied, without attempting to soften the harshness of the words. "I rather wonder if you would miss me."

"Ah! But ever then you remembered what a mercenary woman I am. She smoked for a few moments in silence, staring across the garden, her eyes narrowed against the glare. Then turning her head, she gave him a direct, challenging look. "You do like me, Piers—don't you?"

"Intensely," he agreed, without a trace of emotion. "She was not a sensitive woman; out something in that coldly impersonal announcement got under her skin."

"If you noted me, it would make life almost endurable. At least it would. . . . You are alive." He burst out. Then recovering one of her usual poses: "Hate is after all the end of the love-love."

He laughed. "I don't hate you, Syrie. I certainly don't love you."

She gave him an odd look. "How quit"

are! You don't know how I should love to see you forced to shed that armor. There must be a man inside it somewhere. I seem to remember—" Something in his instant regard made her break off.

SHE shrugged her shoulders and rose, tossing the end of her cigarette away. "Since we have to live under the same roof, can't we at least be—friendly enemies?"

"You know why you are here, Syrie. Don't forget the reason," he advised, and without waiting for a reply, turned and went into the house.

Syrie stood looking after him, her hands clenching and unclenching. Throwing oneself against a stone wall is not a pleasant pastime. She wondered savagely why every now and then she seemed forced to do it.

She was in a viciously angry mood when a few minutes later, she entered the nursery, though from her smiling exterior it would have been difficult for anyone who did not know her to have guessed.

Syrie sat down, no reflection of the smile on her lips in her ice blue eyes.

"I hope you feel that you are going to be happy, Miss Norton?" she asked with deceptive friendliness. "If you have any difficulty with the servants, or anything of that kind, remember that as far as the nurseries are concerned, you are the person to give orders and see that they are obeyed."

"Thank you; but I don't think I am likely to have trouble," Clemency replied, rather surprised. "Louise and Ahmed both seem very willing to do anything I ask them to."

"Good. Servants can be so difficult!" Syrie jerked her shoulders impatiently. "As I told you, when I engaged you I hate being bothered over nursery details. This is your unquestioned domain. Don't let anyone interfere with you—not even Jon! I suppose you will have some sort of itinerary for such as age and physical condition. It would be fine if some method could be used which would dissolve the stones without operation, but as yet no way of doing this has been found."

Many people carry gallstones for years without severe symptoms, but there is always danger of discomfort or their general health may be injured. Treatment other than operation usually includes attention to diet, with special emphasis toward avoiding those foods which produce symptoms of indigestion (particularly fats), and a moderate amount of exercise.

The number of decayed teeth in children is much higher in regions where the soil is poor in chalk than in those where chalk is plentiful, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

"Oh, yes, agreed Clemency. I shall begin with teaching Babe her alphabet, simple counting and the kind of thing."

"WELL, I shall leave it all entirely in your hands. And of course you will arrange with Louise when you want time off. You can have a car one day a month, and sometimes often if you begin to feel you are serving a life sentence. She rose, surely the most easy of employers. Then hesitating. "There's just one thing—do you mind keeping to your own quarters?" She indicated the flower-filled square beneath the windows. "I don't like Babe wandering all over the place. You can get out on to the road by that door, and there are walks all about the Oasis."

"Of course, Mrs. Amberley. I—I'm so sorry to—sort of—bother you. Syrie's smile faded. "The truth is—it's well, just a little awkward. I like to keep Babe away from Colonel Amberley as much as possible, because really although he is quite sweet to her, I know he is bored with a child about the place." She looked at Clemency with a charming embarrassment. "Between you and me, Miss Norton, I don't think my house was ever built large enough to contain two families—especially such a born bachelor as Colonel Amberley is. By temperament he is actually a recluse—if he wasn't so frightfully fond of Jon, and had not been so worried about his health, I don't think anything would have induced him to let even us into his home. Again, strictly between ourselves, he almost dislikes women. You see—of course you won't let this go any farther—he was once terribly in love with someone." Then in a lighter tone: "The trouble for our sex is that they will fall for him. He can have very pretty manners, and that raises hope in the poor things. Kathleen used absolutely to lie in wait for him; and the first girl I brought out made an absolute idiot of herself."

"You needn't worry, Mrs. Amberley," said Clemency quietly. "I shall see that Babe is kept away from her uncle."

Blueprint For Keeping Your Husband Happy

You won't have much husband-trouble if—

You can make him feel that he has the strength and wisdom and judgment to tackle any problem that comes along. His self-confidence may lean on your faith in him.

You can make him laugh out loud. Or just as good—he can make you laugh.

You can hit a happy medium in your relationship between too much dependency upon him and too little. This is one of the more difficult balances to achieve. There is no trace of jealousy toward him for the kind of life he has because he is a man. That means you don't resent his job, his outside interests, his friends, or his masculine independence of spirit.

You share the children with him. Draw the children to you instead of gently pushing them toward him—and you're in for trouble.

Don't Resent Your Share of Marriage
You aren't resentful of your woman's role in life. If you hate the job of homemaker you can't expect your husband to have much respect for it, nor can you expect to be easy to live with.

You take the lead in making your home life stimulating. A man rarely thinks beyond the moment he enters his front door at evening. It's as though he said each night, "Well, here I am—what are you going to do about it?" That leaves it up to the wife to keep things interesting the way a hostess is responsible for keeping a party going.

You credit him with having as high ideals and as much strength of character as you credit yourself with having. A nagging, suspicious wife is often that way simply because it doesn't occur to her that she owes her husband as much trust as she expects from him.

Widely Known Minister is to Address Kiwanis

Dr. Ben Morris Ridpath, minister of the First Methodist church at Joplin, Mo., who has traveled extensively both in the United States and abroad, will be the guest speaker at the regular Kiwanis luncheon on Thursday, April 13. Herbert Schrankler, recently elected president, will preside.

Dr. Ridpath

Dr. H. U. Campbell, of Kiwanis, received an advance press release concerning him which says:

Dr. Ridpath has been minister of First Methodist church, Joplin, Missouri since May 1939, having been called to his present pastorate from St. Louis where he was a minister for 11 years. Since graduating from the University of Minnesota in 1928 he has served 3 churches, including First Church, Joplin, one of the largest Methodist churches of Missouri. After coming to St. Louis in 1928 Dr. Ridpath studied at Eden Theological Seminary of Webster Groves for two years.

In recognition of his accomplishments in the ministry, Central College, Fayette, Missouri conferred upon him the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity in 1941. For ten years, Dr. Ridpath's sermons have been broadcast over

Presents Bill On Vacations

WASHINGTON, April 12—(P)—Senator Douglas (D-Ill.) Tuesday introduced two bills aimed at cutting down the vacations and sick leaves of federal employees.

One bill would reduce from 28 to 20 working days a year the vacations now given most government workers outside the postal service. Their sick leave would be cut from 15 to 12 days.

At the same time, the vacations of postal workers would be raised from 15 to 20 days and sick leave from 10 to 12 days.

The second, alternative bill also would equalize sick leave but base vacations on the length of an employee's service. Those with less than three years service would get 10 days or two weeks. After three years service, the vacations would be increased to 15 days and after 10 years service, to 20 days.

In 1947 he was appointed to serve as a delegate to the Ecumenical Conference, a world-wide council of Methodists which meets every 5 years, and which met that year in Springfield, Mass.

In July of 1949, Dr. Ridpath was a member of a party of 25 ministers from various parts of the United States who flew to Great Britain to study economics, social and religious conditions in England under the Labor government. During this visit, the American visitors were shown every courtesy, interviewing several members of the King's cabinet, the Dean of Canterbury, the President-elect of the British Methodist church, Labor leaders and members of both the House of Lords and Commons.

Dr. Ridpath came back to America on the American Lines' Marine Flasher which carried some 200 immigrant passengers on their way to America. Since his return Dr. Ridpath has been telling American audiences of his observations and experiences, and has delivered more than 50 addresses on Socialist England.

Give Priority to Foreign Aid

Senate Action on Civil Rights Bill Be Sidetracked

WASHINGTON, April 12 — (P)—President Truman's legislative chieftains agreed—at his urging—Tuesday to sidetrack senate action on a controversial civil rights bill to give priority to a foreign economic aid measure.

Senate majority leader Lucas of Illinois announced this decision after meeting with the Democratic policy committee. Earlier in the day he and Vice President Barkley discussed the legislative timetable at a White House conference with Mr. Truman.

They told reporters the President had said the Marshall Plan legislation is "more important at this time than any other."

But Senator Wherry (R-Nebr.) asserted that the Democrats were only seeking to delay a showdown on the civil rights fight until after their party primaries in the south are "out of the way."

He told newsmen that the Democrats were only making a "gesture" in promising to bring up a proposed fair employment practices bill at this session which is due to end July 31.

Lucas, however, had declared earlier that the FEPC bill will be brought up as quickly as possible despite the certainty of a filibuster by Southern Democrats.

"We are not, under any circumstances, dragging our feet on FEPC," Lucas said.

"All They Want in Fight" Senator Russell (D-Ga.), leader of the Dixie opposition forces in the civil rights clash, said it was "immaterial" to his colleagues when the bill is brought up.

"We'll give them all they want in the way of a fight, I'm sure," Russell added.

Nevertheless Lucas predicted "We are going to have a very good record in congress when we finish." He recalled that the administration forces "were in the same position last year when a lot of people said we were not going to get anywhere."

Lucas reported that Mr. Truman was "pretty well satisfied" with the legislative progress thus far.

Increased Social Security benefits.

Extension of the rent control law.

Reduction of some excise taxes.

tion which carries out the government's farm price support operations.

Lucas also predicted that congress would let about 90 percent of Mr. Truman's 21 government reorganization plans go into effect.

C. of C. Awards Given to Two For Courtesy

Both Surprised To Know They Had Been Chosen

When a woman is so surprised she can't talk it is really something, but that was just the way Mrs. Lola Farley, wife of Charles W. Farley, 1801 West Ninth street, was Tuesday afternoon when a group from the Chamber of Commerce walked into Connor-Wagoner's, women's dress shop, and presented her with a check and a courtesy award for the first quarter of the year. She can't, even now, seem to figure out why she was selected for such an award and maybe that is one of the reasons she won it. Being nice to people is such a part of her all the time that she doesn't even realize it.

Mrs. Farley, who was Lola Bruns, was born in Cole Camp, one of 11 children, and came to Sedalia when a child. On November 25, 1925 she was married to Mr. Farley, who is employed at the Missouri Public Service office, and they have one son, Kenneth. After Kenneth finished high school he was in service for awhile but is now back home and doing carpenter work.

Has Fine Voice
Several years ago, during the war, Mrs. Farley went to work for Connor-Wagoner's and is still there. A slim little blonde, with always a smile and a friendly manner.

But Mrs. Farley is widely known for something else besides her ability as saleswoman. She has a beautiful voice and gives of her talent freely. For all occasions, when she is called upon, she sings.

Everett Stumpf
Everett Stumpf, 1000 West Tenth street, was the man winning the courtesy award for the first quarter of the year, and was presented a certificate and a check Tuesday afternoon at Hoffman's Hardware store where he is employed. The check was presented to Mr. Stumpf by Harry Naugel, director of the merchants' division of the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Naugel was accompanied by John F. Zander, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Stumpf was reared in Sedalia and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Stumpf, who now reside on route 1, Ottaville. He was married on July 8, 1943 to Miss Sylvia Dyer, who formerly worked at the Howard Roberts' store. Mr. and Mrs. Stumpf have a 14-month-old daughter, Virginia Mae.

Was In Air Corps
For the past four years Mr. Stumpf has been employed at the Hoffman Hardware store and prior to that spent three and one half years in the Army Air Corps. He is a member of the American Legion, Post 342, of which post he was adjutant for two years. When the group entered the store Tuesday afternoon and started toward the rear of the store, Mr. Stumpf, who has a quiet, unassuming manner, spoke to them, but went on with his work in the front of the store. He didn't know what to think when he was called back. He thought the photographer was just going to take a picture of the store.

presided over the afternoon meeting.

A banquet will be held at 5:30 o'clock this evening at the Christian church at which time Mrs. J. D. Bragg of St. Louis will be the speaker. She will talk on "The Place of Woman in Our Church."

Dr. M. Earle Collins will give the address of the evening service which will start at 7:30 o'clock, on the subject, "The Moslem World." Dr. Collins is president of Tarkio college and president of the State Council of Churches.

publicans hanging from his belt. The President can't go all out in his attacks on Congress as he did against the Republican controlled 80th. This time it is a Democratic Congress — even though it is at times dominated by Republicans and southern Democrats who oppose much of his program.

To Defend Acheson
Mr. Truman apparently will make a vigorous defense of secretary of state Acheson and the state department, he will be on the defensive and not on the offensive as he was in 1948.

The President will be able to point to enactment of part of what he calls his "Fair Deal" program. But much of it remains bogged down in the halls of congress. Some of the promises he made in 1948 aren't much nearer fulfillment than they were then.

How Mr. Truman handles himself within the next few months may have much bearing on the outcome of the November elections. He will be watched closely by friend and foe alike.

Office Closed Thursday
The local office of the state division of welfare, Second street and Lamine avenue, will be closed all day, Thursday, in commemoration of Thomas Jefferson's birthday.

Baseball at Housel Park This Sunday

Teen-age Blues Will Play a Kansas City Team

A baseball game between the Teen-age Blues of Sedalia, sponsored by the Northeast Athletic club and the Armour-Troost Motors of Kansas City will be held this Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at Housel park.

The Teen-age Blues are made up of boys between the ages of 15 to 18 years, whereas the Kansas City team ages will run between 18 to 21 years of age.

Even though the ages of both teams differ the game should be a thriller because the Blues have plenty of experience tucked under their belts, the same as the Kansas City team.

The Blues' manager is "Chuck" Vaught and his assistant is Joe Fisher, who pitches and plays outfielder and is a good hitter. Roland Snavely and Elmer Lane are the coaches, who provide the boys on tips on how to play the game of baseball.

This will be the first baseball game played in Sedalia this season.

Crowd to Get Baby Chicks

All of a sudden, about one thousand Pettis counties and city folks in Sedalia, became chicken raisers.

This morning, that many people, who previously clipped coupons from last Sunday's Democrat-Capital, went down to Ivan Berry's feed store, 210 West Second street, with their shoe boxes and other containers to receive free baby chicks, 10 to a person.

A large crowd of eager people gathered at the store before it was opened, and when the line started to move, over 4,000 chicks were handed out in about a half hour.

Mr. Berry said 7,000 chicks were given out this morning, in addition to another 2,700 chick orders, which will be filled next Wednesday. It seemed as if more people showed up than anticipated, those who didn't receive chicks this morning, left their containers with their name written on a piece of paper inside the containers. They will have an opportunity to receive chicks next week.

The peak of the crowd was around 9:30 o'clock this morning, when people formed a line three and four abreast, which extended about two blocks long.

Henning is to Meet McClain Here Tonight

Hope to Resume The Regular Wednesday Night Mat Events

WRESTLING SCHEDULE
Main Event
Lee Henning vs. Mayes McClain
Buffalo, N. Y. vs. Haskell Institute
Two falls out of 3—30-minute limit.
Semi-Workup
Tommy O'Toole vs. "Tiger" Tasher
Boston, Mass. vs. New York City
Two falls out of 3—45-minute limit.
Opening Event
Sonny Myers vs. Walter Sirois
St. Joseph, Mo. vs. Montreal, Canada
One fall with a 30-minute time limit.
Time: Wednesday, 8:30 p.m.
Place: National Guard Armory.
Referee: Jack Hader, Kansas City.

There will be a wrestling match at the armory tonight starting at 8:30 o'clock, in which three events will be held. Each event, according to Promoter Pearl Christy, could be classed as a feature from the lineup of the contestants.

Plenty of Action

In the main event Lee Henning, Buffalo, N. Y., and Mayes McClain, Haskell Institute, will clash for the best two falls out of three, 90-minute time limit. Henning has been making a record in the central area the past several months and most recently had a terrific match with Bobby Bruns at Kansas City, Kansas.

McClain is a former athlete of Haskell and a tough opponent for any mat man. He is most anxious to get a good start in this area and hopes to beat Henning.

"Tiger" Trasher, New York City will without a doubt prove something of a battler for his rival from the east, Tommy O'Toole of Boston, Mass. This is a two out of three fall match with a 45-minute limit and the feeling between the two is "anything but love" according to Christy.

Opening Event

Opening the wrestling entertainment tonight will be a one-fall event between Sonny Myers of St. Joseph, Mo., and Walter Sirois, Montreal, Canada. It has a 30-minute time limit.

Promoter Christy announced today he hopes to be able to carry on each Wednesday night from now on inasmuch as the shortage of wrestling talent has been met. Practically all of the wrestlers who have been out of circulation because of injuries are back in the whirl.

Jack Hader of Kansas City will referee.

Police Board of K. C. Fires Back At its Critics

Wire Governor an Impartial Inquiry Be Welcomed

KANSAS CITY, April 12—(P)—The Kansas City Board of Police Commissioners fired back at its critics Tuesday night and telegraphed the governor a pledge that "all laws will be rigidly enforced."

The telegram, signed by four out of five members of the board, came in the wake of two other communications to Gov. Forrest Smith since the slaying of Charles Binaggio and Charles Gargotta here last week.

Mayor William E. Kemp wrote the governor Monday asking a thorough investigation of law enforcement here. Monday night the city council passed a resolution asking a similar investigation to forestall "further gang murders."

The Missouri governor appointed the police board.

Tuesday night's telegram to Jefferson City was not signed by Mayor Kemp. Members who affixed signatures were J. L. Milligan, president; Hampton Chambers, vice-president; R. Robert Cohn, treasurer, and Sheridan Farrell, a member.

"We express to you our thanks and appreciation for the confidence you have expressed in the appointed members of the Kansas City's board of police commissioners," the telegram stated.

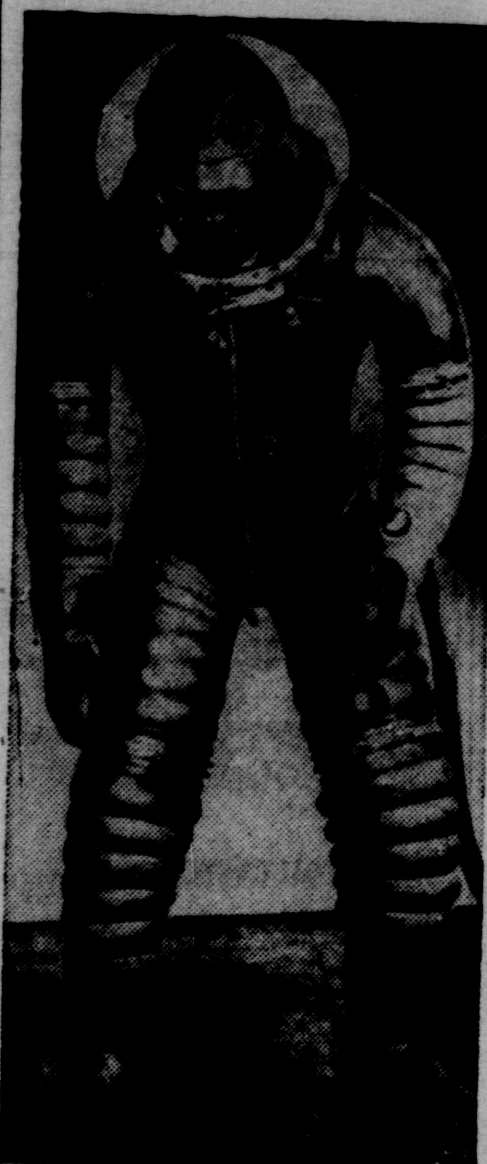

The telegram continued: "A resolution adopted by the City Council of Kansas City, addressed to you, asking an investigation of law enforcement in Kansas City, Missouri, has been brought to our attention. Apparently the City Council acted upon this resolution without consideration of the facts. If the facts had been investigated they would have shown the inferences and statements made in the resolution were not true."

Invite Investigation

"Either the resolution was conceived in a moment of hysteria or was a planned political effort, which embarrasses the governor and the police department in their efforts to solve two murders recently committed."

"The appointed members of the Kansas City Board of Police Commissioners invite any fair and impartial investigation. The records of enforcement are public and can be investigated by any citizen. These records will show there has been no let-down in the enforcement of all laws. Records show spot murders have been committed from time to time before and during home rule and since the department was returned to state control."

"Mayor Kemp is a regular member of the board of police commissioners under the state law governing the police department of Kansas City, Missouri, and is not an ex-officio member. The same responsibility rests on him as on any appointed member of the board. The minutes of the meetings of the Board of Police Commissioners of the years Mr. Kemp has been mayor of Kansas City reveal that he has attended only eighteen meetings out of a total of 184 held by the board. The record also shows nine gang murders have been committed during the years Mayor Kemp has

Barkley for Support to Israel

KANSAS CITY, April 12—(P)—Vice-President Alben Barkley said Friday night Americans should support the new nation of Israel to help create a new force for peace in the world.

"We should all help foster the conceptions of Democracy and the dignity of man as they now prevail in Israel," said Barkley in a speech before the Jewish Federation.

Earlier Barkley visited his father-in-law, Roy W. Rucker, in St. Luke's hospital. Rucker is convalescing there from an illness.

Barkley was scheduled to depart by train tonight for St. Louis, where he will catch a plane for Lexington, Ky.

The MacGregor clan almost exterminated the Colquhoun clan in the last great Scottish highland clan battle in 1602.

been a member of the Board of Police Commissioners.

"Yet this is the first time he has raised his voice. The murders and dates: Tom Kelley, April 20, 46; Fred Renegar, Jan. 10, 47; Mary Bono, July 11, 47; John Mutolo, Oct. 6, 47; Mike Licausi, April 14, 48; Wolf Rimmann, March 24, 49; and the Binaggio, Gargotta murders last Wednesday night."

"Since the two members of the board appointed by you have served there have been only two spot murders, those which occurred last Wednesday night. The killing of Wolf Rimmann occurred several weeks before your appointees were named or took office. We again assure you that all laws will be rigidly enforced and that your instructions covered in your telegram of April 6, will be fully carried out." (end text telegram).

In his telegram of April 6, Gov. Smith requested the board to make an all-out effort to track down the slayers of Binaggio and Gargotta.

Bainbridge Colby is Dead

Was Secretary of State During Term of Wilson

NEW YORK, April 12—(P)—Bainbridge Colby, the late President Woodrow Wilson's secretary of state, died Tuesday night at the age of 80.

Colby died at his home in Bemus Point, N. Y.

His death was announced here by a friend of the family.

Colby was secretary of state from March 22, 1920, to the end of the Wilson administration, March 4, 1921.

As secretary he wrote the famous note refusing to recognize the Soviet government of Russia—and he never changed his opinion on the issue.

Thirteen years later, when the recognition was granted, Colby contended that nothing had changed.

"Our refusal was predicated upon the fact that Russia was an enemy state," he said.

Although he held the highest post in the cabinet under a Democratic president, Colby switched party lines almost more than any figure in American politics.

He started as a Republican in 1902, and served one term in the New York State legislature.

Then in 1912 he bolted with Theodore Roosevelt and supported the latter's bull moose campaign.

But he broke with "Teddy" in 1916, and campaigned for Wilson.

His experience with Theodore Roosevelt was almost exactly duplicated with Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Still a Democrat in 1932, he made a nation-wide speaking tour for FDR's election.

But less than a year later he had turned against the new deal, and in 1936 came out for the Republican candidate, Gov. Alfred M. Landon of Kansas.

He called the new dealers "the betrayers of the country" and proposed an anti-new deal coalition.

Colby wrote widely for newspapers, notably for the Hearst newspapers, and represented American Newspapers Publishers in their legal contest against the press code of the NRA.

Boys Saved From Possible Drowning

BOONVILLE, Mo., April 11—(P)—Two small boys were saved from possible drowning yesterday by the quick work of a neighbor, George Lee, and help of the older boy. All are Negroes.

The boys are John Arthur, 5, and Ronald Lee, 2, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rowles. They wandered to the neighbor's yard and fell through the metal top of a 10-foot cistern containing 24 inches of water.

John Arthur held the smaller boy out of the water until Lee could lower a metal cable into the cistern. The boys clung to it and were drawn to safety.

Dance Honors to Maplewood Set

Ralph Thomas led his Maplewood community dancers through the "Cowboy Loop" on the stage of the Liberty theatre Tuesday night to win the 1950 Square Dance Championship title for this area. Dancers, in addition to Thomas, were Darlene Thomas, Edith Donath, Donnie Donath, Ruth Landes, Howard Turner, mogene Peoples and Cecil Peoples.

Reed and Son, jewelers, sponsored the contest.

Other squares in the competition, winners of the preliminary contests which have been held each Tuesday night recently, were The "Fun and Laughter RYO Club" set with Paul Shippis calling, George Gorrell's Van Natta district set and the "Flat Creek 4-H Club" group with Jay Twenter calling.

Judges for the finals were Damon Hieronymus, James S. Reed, Peggie Hewitt Homan and Neil Reburn all of Sedalia, and Steve Souttar of Marshall. Their decision was based 35% an audience applause, 30% on dancing, 20% on the caller and 15% on general presentation.

The square dance band was composed of Claude "Buck" Bratton, Woody Grimes and Warren Lind. Jimmy Glenn filled the master of ceremonies post.

Map Spots Soviet Claim

(NEA Telephoto)
A Russian note of protest handed to U. S. ambassador Alan Kirk charged that an American "Superfortress" flew 13 miles into Soviet Latvia and opened fire on intercepting Russian fighters. The plane, described by note as a B-29, was first sighted south of the Latvian port of Libava. The note claimed exchange of gunfire followed demand by Soviet fighters that the plane follow them in for a landing at a nearby airdrome. There is some speculation as to whether the "Superfort" might have been the Navy Privateer missing since last Saturday over the Baltic.

Sees Altitude Ills Exaggerated
DENVER—(AP)—He probably is in for some arguments, but Dr. Robert B. Patterson, of Loveland, Colo., thinks the harmful physical effects of the high altitudes are greatly exaggerated—at least for the kind of altitudes Colorado has. Writing in the Rocky Mountain Medical Journal, Dr. Patterson listed mineral oil, sunburn lotion and hard candy as the only medicines a normal flatlander needs to offset symptoms of the altitudes here.

The mineral oil should be used to lubricate dried nasal passages, lotion to guard against sunburn which comes with deceptive swiftness in the rarefied air, and the hard candy to prevent throat dry-

Still Good Jobs In The Army

"There are still good U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force jobs available for high calibre men between 17 and 35 years of age, if they can qualify," says Sgt. John R. Stacy of the U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force local recruiting station, 2 F1, Post Office Bldg., Sedalia, Mo. Sgt. Stacy points out that these jobs offer qualified men financial security, steady work and opportunities for advancement, travel and continued education. Full particulars are available now, but interested applicants are urged to call Sgt. Stacy without delay. He can be contacted at the U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force recruiting station, 2 F1, Post Office Bldg., Sedalia. The telephone number is 879.

MACKENZIE'S COLUMN

By Dewitt Mackenzie
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The prime ministers of the new neighboring nations of India and Pakistan have signed a pact which they soberly agree has pulled their countries back from the verge of war.

After seven days of difficult discussions in New Delhi, Premier Nehru of India and Premier Liaquat Ali Khan of Pakistan achieved an agreement which may carry them far toward peace if it is approved by both parliaments and is implemented. The Indian parliament already has ratified it.

This agreement apparently didn't attempt to deal with all the troublesome issues between the two great states. It was centered in the minority problems which have been producing so much bloodshed and destruction of property in both countries.

These problems of course stem from the fierce religious conflicts which have been waged between the Hindus and the Moslems from time immemorial. This strife was given fresh impetus by the separation of the great Indian peninsula into the two distinct nations.

The division was based on the complexion of the populations in the various areas. That is to say the Hindu territories were grouped together and the same was done with the Moslems, so far as possible. However, this resulted in a bad division of Pakistan—part of the nation being in Bengal and Assam on the eastern side of the Peninsula while the major portion is in the northwest.

Naturally it was impossible to make a clean-cut division of populations, and as a result many minority groups were left in both areas—Moslems in India and Hindus in Pakistan. Moreover, these groups were scattered, for not all the Hindus in Pakistan were gathered into one community, and the same was true of Moslems in India.

The result of this division has been much communal strife and minority groups have suffered terribly, both in loss of life and in destruction of property. Furthermore, minority groups seeking to leave an area and join their own kind in the other state, have in many instances encountered insurmountable obstacles.

The passage of time has served only to aggravate this dangerous situation, and it was mainly to deal with the minority issue that the two prime ministers got together. What they have achieved in the way of agreement is roughly this:

The pact guarantees the security of the Hindu minority in Moslem Pakistan, and the Moslem minority in Hindu India. Both minorities are to be accorded unhampered migration across the borders of the two dominions.

Heavy punishment is provided for those provoking disorder. Both governments also are to step heavily on any propaganda which might arouse communal hatred.

On paper it looks like a fine agreement. Whether it is really good depends, as previously indicated, on how well it is implemented by the governments. If it is carried out in the spirit in which the two statesmen made it, relations between India and Pakistan should improve immensely and relations between communal groups also should improve.

Other knotty issues remain to be solved. Some of them are economic, due to a bad distribution of resources in some instances. One of the hottest disputes revolves about the famous state of Kashmir. The peoples of this state are mainly Moslems and Pakistan claims that area, whereas the ruling prince is a Hindu and wants to join with India.

Perhaps with an easing of the communal tension, the feeling about Kashmir would cool off some.

Big League Players on Ailing List

Cards Have Three, Injured And Dodgers Have Four

By FRED HAYDEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
If all the ailing major league players were lined up together for a game today, you could field a fair country ball club.

They wouldn't all have to be wheeled out on the field, but each qualifies for membership in the limbo league. The Aching All-Stars could be their tag.

At least 15 athletes are on the current roster. Since seven are pitchers, a few would have to be shifted to other positions to round out a starting lineup.

The List
Here's the tale of the (adhesive) tape:

Player-Team-Position-Ailment:
Hal Newhouse, Tigers, P. Arm
Ralph Branca, Dodgers, P. Arm
Vern Riffe, Braves, P. Side
Al Brazle, Cards, P. Arm
Jack Banta, Dodgers, P. Inlay
Don Newcomb, Dodgers, P. Inlay
Tommy Henrich, Yankees, 1B. Knee
Johnny Mize, Yankees, 1B. Shoulder
Marty Marion, Cards, SS. Knee
Nippy Jones, Cards, 1B. Back
Jack Harshman, Giants, 1B. Groin
Birdie Tebbetts, Red Sox, C. Finger
Hank Edwards, Cubs, OF. Shoulder
Steve Dembo, Dodgers, C. General

A few days ago, Ralph Kiner, home-run hitting outfielder of the Pirates, could have made the team, but his sprained wrist seems all right again.

Numerous others with stiff arms and what-not just failed to qualify.

Dr. George Bennett of Johns Hopkins hospital, Baltimore, examined Henrich's left knee yesterday and told Mr. Reliable to take it easy, that "there's nothing to worry about."

Cardinals on List

Marion went to St. Louis for treatment of his injured right knee, which he twisted in a grapefruit game March 14. Brazle reached St. Louis several days ago for treatment of a sore left arm.

Tebbetts suffered an injured finger in a game yesterday. Jones is probably out till June. He had a spinal operation last fall. Newhouse has a mysterious arm ailment. Barshman pulled a muscle on the left side of his groin Monday.

Mize can't throw properly because of a shoulder ailment dating back to August. Reynolds is getting over an aching arch in his left foot. Newcomb still claims his arm is sore. Edwards has a bad shoulder. Lembo needed a complete physical checkup.

Sports Thrills For Blind Kids

By Frits Howell

COLUMBUS, O., April 12—(AP)—A dozen kids, six blind and six partially blind, get their sports thrill of a lifetime April 28.

They'll bowl, as full-fledged contestants, in the 47th American Bowling Congress.

The members of the two teams, all students at the Ohio State school for the blind, don't expect to finish last in the big barrage, either.

The boys come from all parts of the state, but Columbus has adopted them as its own for the pin classic which opens here Saturday.

A dozen new shirts, 12 pairs of shoes, and a dozen new bowling balls were donated anonymously, as was the $81 entry fee. On top of that, various unknown donors showered $100 for equipment, 23 used balls and 31 pairs of bowling shoes for use on the two alleys at the school.

The boys will be taken to the state fairgrounds coliseum and returned to the school in free taxicabs, and will get a free dinner.

The six totally blind get one concession on the alleys during the ABC. They'll be allowed to use a guide rail to determine their position on the approach runway. The partially blind sextet asked no favors.

All the boys are of high school age, 14 to 17. In the five-man race the low scorers on each team will drop out after the first game, giving the substitute a chance.

Letters Awarded to Cagers of Fayette

FAYETTE, Mo., April 12—(AP)—Twelve members of Central College's championship M. C. A. A. basketball team have been awarded letters by the faculty athletic committee.

The list of letter winners, announced by Coach Bob Vanatta, includes:

Fred Stephens, Chillicothe; Harold Brookhorn, Campbell Hill, Ill.; John Fairman, Springfield; Bob Ellis, Naganuene, Mich.; and Don Lynch, Glasgow.

Cochran had the best free throw record in the country, one of the best of all time. Dean converted 186 to his 213 free throw attempts for 87.3 per cent. Ehlers ranked tenth in scoring in the nation with 550 points. Central's 2,230 points for all games was fourth in the country.

Big League Training Camp Briefs

TOPEKA, Kas., April 12—(AP)—Larry Jansen loomed today as Manager Leo Durocher's choice to hurl the New York Giants' opener next Tuesday against the Boston Braves.

Durocher indicated a week ago that Sheldon Jones would be given the honor of hurling the inaugural at the Polo Grounds. But Jones was whacked pretty solidly by the Cleveland Indians in a 5-inning stint yesterday.

Jones was charged with nine of Cleveland's 10 hits and gave up three runs. Jansen, on the other hand, has been rounding into form after a slow start and has always pitched well against the Braves. Cleveland won yesterday's game 6-1.

Neat One-Hitter

BALTIMORE, Md., April 12—(AP)—Carl Erskine, who has been having his troubles this spring, selected an opportune moment to come through for the Brooklyn Dodgers.

With Ralph Branca and Jack Banta sidelined with ailments, Erskine boosted his stock with the Dodger manager, Burt Shotton, with a neat one-hitter against Greensboro of the Carolina league yesterday.

Erskine had a no-hitter until two out in the eighth. He faced only 21 batters, striking out seven and walking three. Erskine also got four hits in five times at bat as Brooklyn won 22-0.

Catcher Meets With Mishap

CINCINNATI, April 12—(AP)—Gus Niarhos is the latest New York Yankee to meet with a mishap. The catcher was hit in the face by a thrown ball during yesterday's pre-game practice. It left a cut on his right cheek.

The Yankees beat Indianapolis 5-3 yesterday.

Suffered Split Finger

ROANOKE, Va., April 12—(AP)—Boston Red Sox catcher Birdie Tebbetts may be unable to open the season behind the bat. He suffered a split finger yesterday and will be out for some time. The Sox are scheduled to play the Roanoke Red Sox, a Boston farm, here today.

Indians Beat Giants

TOPEKA, Kas., April 12—(AP)—Manager Lou Boudreau today had a Cleveland pitcher who had gone an entire exhibition game.

But aside from that he was not cheering too strongly about his supposedly top grain pitching staff.

And even the distance Sam Zol-dak went yesterday was not the regulation game. The left hander worked only seven innings as the Tribe beat the New York Giants, 6-1, in Wichita. Additional innings were called so both teams could catch the Topeka train.

Only two of Lou Boudreau's first line chuckers Bob Lemon and Early Wynn, look ready to start the American league season. Boudreau hopes that Mike Garcia, Bob Feller and Gene Bearden will be ready, but he doesn't know.

Still Plays It Straight

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 12—(AP)—The Detroit Tigers' George Kell played it straight late last season when fans asked him who'd win the American league title. He said the Boston Red Sox.

So the fans jumped down his

Conservation Meeting Tonight in Court House

Members of the Pettis County Conservation Commission will hold their regular meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the general assembly room of the court house.

Kenneth Hicks, a conservation agent of Jefferson City will be the principal speaker, and will also show two moving pictures pertaining to wild life in the state.

Sportsmen and farmers, who are not members, are invited to attend the meeting and see the movies.

Famed Cue Artist

Died of Heart Attack

PHILADELPHIA, April 12—(AP)—Andrew Ponzi, three-time winner of the world's pocket billiards title and one of the game's most popular players died yesterday in Hahnemann hospital. He was 47.

Ponzi was stricken with a heart attack two weeks ago. His death came less than a month after that of another famed cue artist—in the same hospital. Ralph Greenleaf, 50, one of the top players of the game and 14-times world champion, died of a cerebral hemorrhage on March 15.

Throat for Disloyalty to his Own Team

"This year I'm not making the same mistake," said George. "I'm picking Detroit—not just to keep the fans off my neck but because I think we have a good chance."

Still Unsigned

GAINESVILLE, Tex., April 12—(AP)—The regular season is just a week away but Frankie Gustine still hasn't signed a contract with the St. Louis Browns.

Asked when he planned to have a conference with President Bill Dewitt, the third baseman replied: "I don't know, but I guess I had better get around to it soon. A pay check would come in handy."

Talk of Trading

HOUSTON, Tex., April 12—(AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals and the Chicago Cubs once again have revived the talk about a possible trade.

Wid Matthews, Cub executive, said the club would trade either of its veteran catchers, Mickey Owen or Bob Scheffing, for a starting pitcher. Redbird Manager Eddie Deard declared he would not give a front line starting pitcher for either of the catchers.

Dyer added that no trade conference with the Cubs has been held nor does he have an appointment for one.

A Different Kind of Hunting

HOUSTON, Tex., April 12—(AP)—The return to winning form of pitcher Bill Voiselle would lift considerable weight from the shoulders of Manager Frankie Frisch of the Chicago Cubs. But first, Voiselle must lift some of the weight from his midsection.

Big Bill, obtained by the Cubs from the Boston Braves for a reported $50,000 and infielder Gene Mauch, has reduced from 240 to 225.

Dutch Leonard, the Cubs veteran pitcher, asked Voiselle what he did during the winter to keep in trim.

"I hunted," said Bill. "Hunted for what?" asked Dutch. "Place to sit down."

Start Counting Too Soon

MEMPHIS, April 12—(AP)—Manager Jack Onslow of the Chicago White Sox insists he can lick baseball's balk rule if the pitchers learn to follow his method.

"I keep telling the kids to count five," he said. "If they come to a full stop in their delivery and count five they won't have any balks called on them. But they start counting when they leave the hotel."

Pitched Near Perfect Ball

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 12—(AP)—The Philadelphia Phillies' flag hopes were riding high today thanks to a sparkling six-inning no-hit performance by young Curt Simmons.

The lean lefthander, a $65,000 flop for three seasons, pitched near perfect ball for six innings yesterday against the Memphis Chicks of the Southern Association. Another southpaw, Ed Wright, worked the last three frames and permitted two hits. The Phils won, 9-0.

Red Sox Team Is Picked to Win Pennant

New York And Detroit Are on Top of The List

By Jack Hand

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., April 12—(AP)—The Boston Red Sox look like the class team of the American League with awesome power and enough pitching to win the pennant after two close misses.

All they need is a swift boot out of the starting gate.

Joe McCarthy, away from the world series since 1943, figures to get the Sox off fast and slide home October 1, with a little to spare. Marse Joe knows he can't afford another logy start.

Just as a warning, we handed out the same Red Sox pennant pick the last two years. Look what happened. Cleveland in '48 and the Yankees last summer didn't pay any attention.

Fine Pitching Staff

New York and Detroit probably will make the most trouble with their fine pitching staffs. The Yanks also have that "strong bench" to help in case of emergencies.

Cleveland has too many infield "ifs" despite prospects of great seasons by pitchers Bob Lemon and Mike Garcia. Lou Boudreau and Joe Gordon must come back to make the Tribe contenders all the way.

Philadelphia's sore arm epidemic cooled off the A's as a flag fowler. If Joe Coleman and Dick Fowler are in serious trouble, they are in tough shape. The other clubs are just in there to fill out the race.

Here's the way it looks from here:

1. Boston.
2. New York.
3. Detroit.
4. Cleveland.
5. Philadelphia.
6. Chicago.
7. St. Louis.
8. Washington.

Third Baseman For Indians Is Released

TOPEKA, Kas., April 12—(AP)—Kenny Keltner, third baseman for the Cleveland Indians for the last 12 years, was given his unconditional release today.

Manager Lou Boudreau conferred with Keltner last night in his hotel room and broke the news. Keltner went to the Indians from the Milwaukee Brewers.

Pro Grid Player Signs With Redskins

WASHINGTON, April 12—(AP)—"Bullet Bill" Dudley is signing up for his seventh year of professional football, and his first with the Washington Redskins.

The former All-America from the University of Virginia signed a one-year pact for an undisclosed salary, the Redskins announced today.

Dudley was obtained by the Redskins two months ago from the Detroit Lions in a trade.

Dudley entered pro football with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1942. He twice led the National League in ground gaining, in 1942 and in 1946.

Widmar Holds Out

Al Widmar of Dunmore, Pa., shows what he'll do to the next St. Louis Browns contract offer if it isn't at least $10,000.

Widmar, who made $8,000 with Baltimore last year, says the best Browns have offered is $7,000. Claiming the Browns' offer prevents him from earning a "decent" living in baseball, Widmar said: "If I don't get at least $10,000, I'll sue baseball in the courts the way Danny Gardella did." (AP Wirephoto)

Over 50,000 Fans Attend Ball Game

DALLAS, April 12—(AP)—The Dallas baseball club returned to its home field today with a new Texas and minor league opening day attendance record set in a football stadium.

More than 50,000 persons turned out last night to watch the Eagles open the season with a 10-3 setback at the hands of Tulsa but many of those folks were lured to the Cotton Bowl by the appearance of nine former major league stars who played to the first Tulsa batter.

Dizzy Dean started on the mound for the old-timers and proceeded to walk Harry Donabedian, the first Tulsa batter, while Charlie Grimm, Charley Gehring, Travis Jackson, Home Run Baker, Ty Cobb, Duffy Lewis and Tris Speaker held down the positions in the field. Mickey Cochran was the catcher.

After this the official game was started with Donabedian batting again, this time getting a hit.

Dallas had hoped to fill the Cotton Bowl's 75,000 seats not only to break the Texas League opening day attendance record but to show that this city could support big league baseball.

While Dallas set a new minor league opening day attendance record it may not have beaten the all-time attendance mark. In 1944 Baltimore and Louisville played before 52,833 in a little world series game in Baltimore.

Just how many actually were in the Cotton Bowl hasn't been determined. The tickets have not yet been counted. But if all who bought tickets attended, the all-time minor league attendance record was broken. The total number actually sold was 54,151.

Widmar Holds Out

Al Widmar of Dunmore, Pa., shows what he'll do to the next St. Louis Browns contract offer if it isn't at least $10,000.

Widmar, who made $8,000 with Baltimore last year, says the best Browns have offered is $7,000. Claiming the Browns' offer prevents him from earning a "decent" living in baseball, Widmar said: "If I don't get at least $10,000, I'll sue baseball in the courts the way Danny Gardella did." ## Detroiters Lead Hockey Playoffs

Series Shifts To Toronto For Next Two Games

By Charles C. Cain

DETROIT, April 12—(AP)—The Detroit Red Wings were off to a flying start in the final Stanley Cup hockey playoffs today and it looked as if the New York Rangers would have a hard time catching them.

The Red Wings, playing without their two star forwards, Ted Lindsay and Fordie Howe, whipped the New Yorkers 4-1 last night in a game that became one-sided after the first 40 minutes of play.

The victory put the Wings one up in the best-of-seven championship series which shifts to Toronto for games No. 2 and 3 on Thursday and Saturday nights.

The pre-game 12-5 odds in favor of Detroit to win the series went up a couple of points.

The fast New Yorkers grabbed a one goal lead in the first period during which they skated rings around the Detroiters.

But the National Hockey League champion Red Wings surged back with a four-goal blitz in the second period to tuck the game away. After that, the Detroiters played strictly defensive hockey against the Rangers' futile efforts for a tally.

Hal Boyle COLUMN

By Cynthia Lowry
For Hal Boyle

NEW YORK, April 11 — Between Braille, record players and radios, a lot has been done to keep the blind informed and up to date — but there was one big gap unfilled.

That was the reasoning of young David Margolis, a young Brooklyn lawyer who abandoned the bar to do what he could to help the blind. So Margolis, who lost his own sight during an illness 12 years ago, dreamed up a radio program.

Sells His Idea
Then he took the harness of his gentle shepherd dog Cindy, came to Manhattan and sold his idea on the spot. A couple of weeks later, the premiere of the show on a New York independent station jammed the switchboard with enthusiastic telephone calls.

It's called "The Talking Magazine," a weekly half-hour digest of current periodical articles and a report on matters usually overlooked by news broadcasters and commentators but still of interest. "Radio has been a wonderful thing for the blind," Margolis says, "because it's given us news, some interpretation and a sense that we can keep up with what's going on without having someone read to us. There are Braille and talking books — not enough, but some. We can hear radio music and plays. But there's no way we can keep up with what's going into the magazines unless some person reads it to us."

Margolis brought his brain child to station WNEW. Ted Cott, production executive, added some showman's flourishes. His main contributions were a decision to enlist Broadway stars as the "readers" and to put the show on tape — and using the stars in their leisure time.

Gets Cooperation

He made telephone calls to theater great up and down Broadway and got 100 per cent co-operation. The show started out late in March with Patricia Morison of "Kiss Me Kate," and "Death of a Salesman's" Mildred Dunnock, heading a star cast of readers. The next week it was Frederic March and other big names.

In the first few weeks, thousands of blind — and sighted — listeners were treated to a wide variety of subjects, ranging from a bit by Eleanor Roosevelt to staccato anecdotes by a number of columnists. Just about everything goes into the act — fashion notes, humor, oddities in the news and just plain interesting feature.

Margolis, associated with the Industrial Home for the Blind of Brooklyn, says the response has been greater than he expected. "After the first broadcast we had about 150 telephone calls about it here at the home," he said, "and lots more at the station. Blind people don't write letters very often — but we got a lot of fan mail from sighted people who also enjoy the program."

Television Beats Radio

CHICAGO—(AP)—The New Chicago classified telephone directory is notable for two reasons. The publisher, the Reuben H. Donnelly Corp., says it is the largest ever printed in the U. S. And, for the first time, television listings (918) exceed radio listings (520).

HOPEFUL—Eager-eyed Edgar Harry Rhodes wants very much to become a nephew of Uncle Sam, but he'll have to have an assist from Congress to do it. Edgar was adopted in Vienna by Sgt. David Rhodes, who brought him to his home in Pittsburgh, Pa. A technicality that would compel his return to Austria can only be overcome by a special act of Congress.

Sillers Manager Of Pools

Park Board Names Him And Makes Plans For Opening Ceremony May 26

Sedalians who haven't had the chance to get their feet wet in a city swimming pool for some time, will now have that opportunity between May 27 and Labor Day, September 4, this being the dates for the opening and closing of the Liberty Park and Hubbard Park swimming pools.

They were recently constructed as a result of a bond issue passed by the citizens of Sedalia in November, 1947.

On Friday night, May 26, day before the official opening of the city pools, an opening ceremony will be held, at which time a water safety program will be conducted.

The Sedalia Park Board has announced that P. A. Sillers, 403 West Fourth street, will be the executive manager in charge of both pools. Last August, Mr. Sillers conducted a survey of swimming pools all through the states of Missouri and Kansas.

Principal at Horace Mann

Mr. Sillers, who is married and has an 18-month-old daughter, Anne, came to Sedalia nine years ago, and taught school at Smith-Cotton high school. Since the fall of 1947, Mr. Sillers has been the principal at Horace Mann school.

According to the park board, minor work such as putting in window screens, and the placing of bath window shades, will be done in the near future. Mr. Sillers said rental towels, rental swimming suits and baskets have been purchased.

Hours To Be Open

Through week days, the pools will be opened at 9:00 o'clock in the morning until noon, then will be re-opened at 1:00 o'clock in the afternoon and closed at 10:00 at night. On Saturday and Sunday of each week, the pools will be opened at 1:00 o'clock in the afternoon and closed at 10:00 o'clock at night.

Tickets will be printed for the pools. An adult season ticket will cost $7.50, for a child $5.00, and a parent season ticket, $3.80. At Hubbard Park pool, the season tickets will be somewhat cheaper. For the adults, it will be $5.00, children $3.00, and parent season tickets $2.50. Single admission charge to the Liberty Park pool will be 39 cents for adults and 15 cents for children. At Hubbard, the adult price will be 30 cents, and 15 cents for children.

A parent, or chaperone ticket is one given at a reduced rate, so the adult may look after the child. Both may get in the water.

Mr. Sillers said he plans to have swimming classes four mornings during each week. He also said, life guards who have Red Cross senior life saving certificates, will be on duty at both pools.

20 Moberly Citizens Ill

MOBERLY, Mo., April 12.—(AP)—State and city health officials are investigating the illness of more than 20 Moberly citizens who were stricken after eating pie purchased at several grocery stores and downtown lunch counters.

Three Moberly physicians here reported that they had treated more than 20 patients. Others who became ill Saturday and Sunday, recovered without seeking medical attention.

At least one patient required hospitalization. Two physicians said they had patients who were "pretty sick" and unable to work. Apparently all of the persons who became ill ate banana or coconut cream pies.

City Manager H. P. Phelan said an investigation is being made. Samples of the pie were collected by City Sanitary Inspector Webster Scott. State health department representatives were here Monday to take samples to Jefferson City for testing.

City Physician H. C. Griffiths, who had nine pie-eating patients during the weekend, said the illness could have been caused by "cattier contamination."

Loan to Maryville

WASHINGTON, April 12.—(AP)—The general services administration allotted a loan of $2,040 yesterday to Maryville, Mo., for water supply facilities, the total estimated cost of the project there is $55,000.

To Manage Pools

P. A. Sillers, 403 West Fourth street, who has been appointed by the Sedalia Park board to be the executive manager of the newly constructed Liberty Park and Hubbard Park swimming pools in Sedalia. Mr. Sillers is the principal at Horace Mann school.

Only 2 Weeks In Which to File For Office

Many Republicans For Committee Men And Women

Filing for nominations for public office has been slow in recent weeks and there are only two weeks left for prospective candidates to make up their minds and have their declaration filed with County Clerk James Green. The last day for filing is April 25.

Tuesday morning the clerk was busy opening letters from many Republicans filing for county committee men and women. Apparently a drive was staged in the past few days by the county chairman, Carl G. Schrader to get a committee man and woman in each precinct of the county, from the filings that morning.

Filing

Probate Judge: A. M. Harlan, Democrat.

County Treasurer: Frank L. Wagner, Republican.

County Clerk: James H. Green, Republican; Asbury Goodknight, Democrat.

Judge of Western District: Asa Elliott, Democrat.

Presiding Judge: William L. Marlin, Democrat.

Judge of Eastern District: E. L. Birdsong, Democrat.

Prosecuting Attorney: William F. Brown, Democrat.

Registrars: Miss John S. Devine, Democrat of third ward; Mrs. Robert Phelan, Democrat of third ward; Mrs. J. C. Saunders, Democrat of the fourth ward; Mrs. Alice W. Crawford, Republican of the first ward; Mrs. Chris Rau, Sr., Republican of the third ward and Fannie L. Schupp, Republican of the fourth ward.

Report Seeing Oil Slick, Life Raft in Baltic

May be U. S. Plane Disabled Recently By The Russians

STOCKHOLM, April 12.—(AP)—Sweden sent a mild protest to the U. S. embassy here today against violation of her territory by U. S. rescue planes searching for an American navy patrol plane.

The foreign office said that some rescue planes had passed over "the forbidden area around Karlskrona," Sweden's biggest naval base on the Baltic.

Sight Oil Slick
WIESBADEN, Germany, April 12.—(AP)—The crew of an American search plane today reported the sighting of an oil slick, and what appeared to be a life raft, in the Baltic sea area where a U. S. navy plane is missing.

The search B-17, piloted by Capt. Banta M. York of Raleigh, N. C., scanned the seas off Bornholm island, Denmark, for six hours and returned to Copenhagen late in the day when its fuel ran low.

Air Force headquarters here quoted Sgt. Winthrop Maddox of Griffin, Ga., a member of York's crew as saying:

"It looked like a life raft to me. It was partly submerged in the center of an oil slick. The yellow color showed up and it looked like it might have been equipment off an airplane."

York said he saw debris but no signs of life.

Oil Slick on Water
An oil slick is left on the water by sinking planes or vessels. The plane sought is a four-engine Privateer, which left Wiesbaden Saturday for Copenhagen and may have been disabled, air officers here fear, by Russian gunfire.

The search plane's reports did not raise much hope for the missing crew of ten. A Danish pilot who went to the scene said he believed the American pilot might have been misled by a buoy placed by the Russians to mark dumped mustard gas.

York's Statement
York told the Associated Press: "I dropped everything except the kitchen sink into the sea to keep flying as long as possible, but at last I had to give up because fuel was running low. 'Immediately before I set a course for Copenhagen, a Danish minesweeper reached the spot and picked up some of what I thought was debris. The Danes reported by radio that the first thing they picked up was a wooden box, used by fishermen for storing fish.'"

An Associate Press correspondent flew out from Roenne, Bornholm island, and saw nothing but water and other searching planes and vessels.

Hendren Takes Smith's Part

ELVINE, Mo., April 12.—(AP)—The chairman of the state Democratic committee has defended Gov. Forrest Smith's administration as one of strict law enforcement.

John H. Hendren of Jefferson City told members of the St. Francois county Young Democrat Donkey club here last night that metropolitan Missouri newspapers were just trying to discredit the Democratic party by attacks on Democratic leaders.

"Our leaders have always enforced all of the laws and stand today for fearless administration of justice," he said, without making any direct reference to the gangster killings in Kansas City last week.

New Beast of Prey, Cunning And Cruel, Has Been Found

By Vern Haugland

WASHINGTON, April 12.—(AP)—A new beast of prey, cunning and cruel, has appeared in the Adirondack mountains and in some other widely-scattered areas of the United States.

A coyote-dog hybrid, it is swifter than one of its forebears, the dog, and even more wary than the other, the keenly intelligent coyote, says the Fish and Wildlife Service.

And it's more vicious than either, the agency adds.

"We've run into the coyote-dog hybrid before," said Clifford C. Presnall, assistant chief of the service's predator control division. "A few years ago it became a menace in Kentucky but we put on a control campaign and cleaned it out."

"But now, in the Adirondacks it seems for the first time to have become a fairly stabilized type—a type that has been breeding for several generations. Hunting techniques used against coyotes in the thinly-populated west cannot safely be used in the more heavily settled east."

In the west, the prolific coyote is kept in check by hard-riding ranchers and forest rangers who hunt him down from the air in small planes, chase him to earth with greyhounds and fast horses or plant poison pellets in the carcasses of dead animals on which he might feed.

But even if these methods could be used in the Adirondacks, government experts are not sure they would work with the coydog, dogote, coyog or whatever you want to call the cross-breed.

In recent years the animal has been attacking deer, livestock and poultry in increasing numbers in Lewis, Franklin, Essex and St. Lawrence counties, N. Y.

At the request of New York authorities, the service sent a hunter into the Adirondacks to train employees in coping with the new menace. Some of the beasts were killed.

They vary in color from red to brown to white. Some betray a chow ancestry. Others have strong hints of the shepherd or bloodhound. All resemble the coyote more strongly than the dog.

Heads Rotary

Kenneth U. Love, 422 West Sixth street, advertising manager of the Sedalia Democrat-Capital, who was elected president of the Sedalia Rotary club Tuesday. He will assume the office in June, succeeding Oscar DeWalt whose term expires then.

Request For Grand Jury in Slaying Cases

Rabbi Mayerberg States Gambling Joints Are Tipped

KANSAS CITY, April 12.—(AP)—Rabbi Samuel S. Mayerberg asked Gov. Forrest Smith today to call a grand jury to investigate the police board and members of the police department here.

Mayerberg, who carried on a campaign against the late Boss Tom Pendergast rule in his heyday of the 1930s, said he "happened to know" that every time the police planned a raid on gambling joints in Kansas City they were spoiled by tip-offs.

"I hope," he said in his letter to the Governor, "you will not consider me presumptuous when I say to you, Dear Governor, that your telegrams after murders are committed are not a sufficient exercise of gubernatorial responsibilities placed upon you by the laws of Missouri. The time to enforce the law is before the crime is committed."

Asked For Meeting
Circuit Judge Ray G. Cowan today asked representatives of law enforcement agencies to meet with him tomorrow to discuss the advisability of calling a county grand jury.

If it is determined that a grand jury should be called, Judge Cowan said it would include an investigation of the Binnaggio-Gargotta slayings.

"In view of various investigations under way by the agencies invited," Judge Cowan said, "I want them to determine whether they have any evidence or information to put before a grand jury that would warrant its call."

Writer Here on Way to Europe

Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Cochran of Camel-By-The-Sea, California, are spending a week with Mrs. Cochran's mother, Mrs. R. J. Martin, 617 West Fifth street. Mr. and Mrs. Cochran are on their way to Europe. They will sail from New York on the Queen Elizabeth April 28 and spend six months touring in their automobile in the British Isles and Norway, Sweden, Finland, Denmark, Germany, Belgium and France. They will return to the United States in September.

Mr. Cochran formerly was sports editor of the Kansas City Journal-Post, and the Chicago American and was supervising sports editor of all Heart newspapers, with offices in New York. He also owned a farm a mile south of Ottumwa. For the past five years he has been writing for Warner Bros. and Universal studios in Hollywood and also has aided in direction of several motion pictures. Two years ago they built a home at Camel-by-the-Sea, Calif., where they reside when he is not at the studios.

Extend Search For Slayings to Chicago

KANSAS CITY, April 12.—(AP)—Police turned to Chicago today in search for a clue to the gangland slayings of Charles Binaggio, north side political boss, and his ex-convict henchman, Charles Gaigotta.

Frank Collins, chief of detectives, said he was sending a ballistic expert to Chicago with the eight bullets taken from the two bodies and those found at the slaying of a young man of Wolf C. Rimann, a Kansas City sports figure, to compare them with slugs taken from gang victims there.

Truman Ends Fifth Year in Office Today

Ready to Carry Counter Offensive Against GOP Attacks

By Jack Bell
WASHINGTON, April 12.—(AP)—President Truman ends his fifth year in office today in what his friends describe as a confident, happy warrior mood.

The sun-tanned President, fresh from a vacation in Florida, apparently is ready to carry to the people a counter-offensive against Republican attacks on his secretary of state and other GOP assaults.

Picturing the President as in vigorous health, Senator Lucas of Illinois, the Democratic leader, gave a reporter this description of Mr. Truman:

"He is confident and in a happy frame of mind. He thinks conditions throughout the country are good. He thinks world problems are no insoluble. He is ready to fight for his program."

Republican Expression

A Republican reaction to Mr. Truman was expressed by Senator Brewster of Maine, chairman of his party's senatorial campaign committee.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—(AP)—A large American-made globe was presented to President Truman today in memory of his fifth anniversary in the White House.

The globe, 32 inches in diameter and somewhat larger than the one now standing in the president's office, was the personal gift of Louis Johnson, secretary of defense, and Gordon Gray, retiring secretary of the army.

The two officials also gave Mr. Truman a model of a French 75 gun which he fired as an artillery captain in the First World War, and a model of a modern American-made field piece of the same calibre.

"We wish Mr. Truman — but not his program — a long life," Brewster said. "We still consider him the Republicans' best asset."

"We think it is obvious that he is going to campaign for a Truman Congress, since the Democratic 81st Congress has been no better, from his standpoint, than the Republican 80th. We welcome him into the battle on 'hose terms.'"

To Head Westward
Just about the time he is celebrating his 66th birthday next May 8 Mr. Truman will be heading westward for the first political stumping of a campaign patterned after his surprisingly successful drive for the presidency in 1948.

The President's friends and foes agree generally that this tour into the middle and far west — ending with a party rally in Chicago May 15 — will give the country some idea what to expect from this year's campaign.

Again it will be Harry S. Truman talking to the people — but there may be a difference.

This time he isn't the underdog in a political campaign. He has an election victory over the Re-

C. W. Mathieson

C. W. Mathieson, 901 West Broadway, was unanimously elected at a regular meeting of the board of directors of the Sedalia Bank and Trust Company, to fill the vacancy on the board caused by the death of John McGrath.

An election to fill the office of president, which Mr. McGrath held, has not yet been called. Mr. McGrath's son John J. McGrath, is executive vice president of the bank.

Mr. Mathieson is executive vice president of Town & Country Shoes, Inc., which operates shoe factories in Sedalia, Warrensburg and Odesa. Other members of the board are: J. E. Cannaday, C. L. Carter, H. C. Feuers, D. S. Lamm, J. J. McGrath, E. W. Thompson, George H. Trader and B. C. Claycomb.

Talk on Value Of Community Theatre Group

The Sedalia Lions Club members at its regular noonday meeting, today, at Hotel Bothwell, heard Michael J. Bogutski, local attorney, speak on the Community Theatre and the Pettis Players, amateur theatrical group.

In his talk he said Sedalia was now ready for a Community Theatre and such a project and organization will be a benefit to the city.

Bogutski also told of the recreation enjoyed from such a project for those participating and said it furnishes real live entertainment to the public. He reviewed in part the work of the Pettis Players and told of the recent production the group staged twice, several weeks ago.

He was introduced by Bernard Stanfield, program chairman for the meeting.

Reported on Cancer Drive
Dr. Carl Siegel gave a brief report on the Cancer program and drive which has started. He explained Sedalia and Pettis county's goal has been set at $3,289 of which sixty per cent remains in the county and the remainder going to the National Foundation to be used in its fight against Cancer.

It was announced by Frank Deady, entertainment chairman, a dance would be held on Thursday night, April 27.

Guests today were Adolph Glenn, former president of the local club, who now resides in San Diego, Calif., guest of W. H. Bunn; Malcolm Higgins, St. Louis, of Leo Bopp; Lawrence Barrett, Marshall, of Harold Seaburg; Ralph Becker with the Industrial Loan and Investment Company, was introduced as a new member of the Silverman.

Harold Seaburg, vice-president, presided over the meeting in the absence of A. W. Haller, president.

The Weather
Partly cloudy this afternoon, tonight and Thursday, high this afternoon in 40s. Low tonight near 32. High Thursday near 50.

Temperature: 7 a. m. 33 degrees; 2 p. m. 40 degrees.

Lake of Ozarks: 9.0; fall 2.

Thought for Today
We should carry up our affections to the mansions prepared for us above, where eternity is the measure, felicity the state, angels the company, the Lamb the light, and God the inheritance and portion of His people forever.

—Jeremy Taylor.

Realistic Session
NEW YORK, April 12.—(AP)—Students from 46 colleges meeting here for the annual collegiate model general assembly wanted their sessions to be realistic.

They were. F. G. Trunka, a Rutgers university senior, impersonating a Russian delegate, took exception to a ruling by the chair yesterday. Then he took a walk—right out of a city college lecture hall. He was followed by delegates of the entire Russian bloc.

Replica of Statue of Liberty To be on Court House Lawn
The Boy Scouts of America have launched a two year program to "Strengthen the Arm of Liberty," and in some communities replicas of the statue of liberty are being erected.

Such a replica will be erected in Sedalia at the northwest corner of the court house and will be dedicated on the Fourth of July. The statue is six feet high, weighs 280 pounds and will stand on a five foot star shape base. It will cost about $900.

Rev. A. J. Brunswick is chairman of the Pettis County District of Boy Scouts with Harry Naugel as chairman of the statue project. Starting work on the project in January about half of the money necessary has been raised through the civic clubs. Every person in Sedalia will be given an opportunity to contribute to the erecting of this statue which is part of the 40th anniversary crusade of the Boy Scouts of America to strengthen the arm of liberty. Clubs, schools and organizations will be contacted and asked to give if they care to.

The site has been selected and approved by the county court and erection will start about May 15. The committee in charge of the erection is composed of Lyle Brown, O. W. Wiley and Harold Seaburg. Chester Wolfe will be in charge of the dedication and with Harry Naugel on the finance committee are George Lockett, Alvin Heynen, Joe Ruddick and Leon Archias.

All work done toward erecting the statue will be donated.

Suits Against Railroads
COLUMBUS, O., April 12.—(AP)—Suits for $301,000 were filed here today against the Pennsylvania and Baltimore and Ohio railroads and union depot by the administrator of the estate of Edward D. Jennings, of Jennings, Mo.

The Missourian, 45, with a wife and two children, was killed in a train accident here two years ago.

To Raise Salaries
INDEPENDENCE, Mo., April 12.—(AP)—Starting next Monday every elected official in this city gets a raise except councilmen. The mayor's salary goes up from $4,200 to $5,400 a year.

Bomber Crashes, 13 Dead

Ship From Roswell, N. M., Cracked up Shortly After Leaving Albuquerque

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., April 12.—(AP)—Thirteen airmen died last night in the fiery crash of a B-29 bomber into a secret area of Sandia Special Weapons Base.

Deaths of all aboard were confirmed this morning with official announcement of their names. Authorities said a search crew finished recovering the mangled bodies only a short time earlier.

The big ship, from Walker Base at Roswell, N. M.—cracked up near the crest of the Manzano mountains three minutes after taking off from Kirtland Base here.

Officials reported it had climbed little more than 1,000 feet, unaccountably failing to gain appreciable altitude or bank sharply to avoid the peak.

Saw Flames
Witnesses at Kirtland saw flames leap high into the air moments later.

The scene of the crash was in a remote area of Sandia Base, which assembles the atomic bomb. Tight secrecy regulations were invoked.

Killings Due Fear is View Of Gov. Smith

His First Public Comment on the Double Slaying

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., April 12 — (P) — Gov. Forrester Smith speculated Tuesday two gang killings in Kansas City last week stemmed from underworld fear of what a federal grand jury might learn about criminal operations.

Charles Binaggio, north side political leader and one of the Democratic governor's supporters, and Binaggio's strong arm man, Charles Gargotta, were mowed down last Wednesday night in a Democratic club on Truman road.

The governor said that if the case is ever solved, it was his belief the slaying would be found to have only an indirect connection with gambling.

He said his theory is that it arose from underworld fear of the grand jury investigation.

He noted that newspaper reports indicated Kansas City underworld members were getting "nervous and jittery" about the grand jury's lengthy inquiry. Both Binaggio and Gargotta had spent hours in the jury's anteroom, waiting to testify.

"Somebody was afraid they were going to talk," Smith said. Earlier today the governor got a letter from Mayor William E. Kemp of Kansas City demanding a "fine toothed investigation" of the Kansas City police department. Kemp said the citizens were entitled to know whether there was any truth to reports that department morale was crumbling.

Smith said he talked with Kemp by telephone after receiving the letter and asked him to come to the capitol tomorrow for a conference.

"If there's any weak links in the department or any fear on the part of members of the police department, I want to find out about it," the governor said. "If he has any information I want him to tell me about it."

Smith said he saw nothing in the letter, after reading it several times, implying that Kemp had any knowledge of specific trouble in the police force. He interpreted the letter as a request for an investigation to determine whether any weakness does exist.

As mayor, Kemp automatically is a member of the police board. The governor appoints the other four members. In recent months the mayor has sat with the board and voted as a member a number of times.

No Progress Report

Smith said he had been in daily touch with the board chairman, J. L. Milligan, since the slayings but had received no progress report today. Earlier, he said the Kansas City police were doing everything possible to find the killers.

Kemp's letter was the second demand for an investigation. The city council of Kansas City adopted a resolution last night urging a similar inquiry.

And last night, in a statement issued here, the Republican Smith defeated in the 1948 general election—Murray E. Thompson of Marshfield—challenged the governor to oust the entire police board and get one that would "clean up the town."

Today's comments by Smith at his news conference were his first publicly expressed views on the slayings since he sent the attorney

Clarification on Rental Ruling

ST. LOUIS, April 12 — (P) — Clarification of a federal court ruling on whether a tenant must pay a rent increase granted by a rent control board caused landlords to breathe easier Tuesday.

A suit by a landlord to collect a rent increase was dismissed by U. S. District Judge George H. Moore yesterday. The ruling did not pertain to violations of the rent control act as was reported yesterday.

In the motion to dismiss, the tenant's attorney, Frank W. Clegg, argued that the increase was per-general and the highway patrol superintendent to Kansas City last week to help local police.

Newsmen asked him to expand his statement but he declined.

Asked what he meant by saying that in the end gambling would be found to have only an indirect bearing on the murders, Smith said he referred to trouble arising from control of race news services in Kansas City—long a source of underworld trouble.

"I've asked hundreds of people in both Kansas City and St. Louis—newspapermen and preachers," he said. "And they all told me there is less gambling in their town than there has been for eight or ten years."

Then he developed his theory that underworld fear rather than gambling was at the bottom of the killings.

Quick Thinking of Policeman Saves Boy

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., April 12 — (P) — A 15-year-old youth was reported recovering Tuesday from a severe knife wound—and much of the credit goes to Police Inspector Floyd Robards.

Robards, answering a police call yesterday, found James Carl Sage bleeding profusely from an abdominal wound. Sage, whose mother operates a tourist court, accidentally had run into a butcher knife held by a cook.

Robards quickly reached into the wound and closed up a severed artery with his fingers. He held the artery until the boy arrived at a hospital four miles away.

The boy was given blood transfusions last night. Doctors said his condition was good.

Dirksen to Oppose Lucas

CHICAGO, April 12 — (P) — Everett M. Dirksen, a former congressman, won the Republican nomination for United States senator Tuesday night.

His party chose him in the Illinois primary election to oppose Democratic Senator Scott Lucas in the November battle. Lucas was renominated without opposition.

Dirksen, a U. S. representative from 1933 until 1949, encountered only feeble competition in his race against Lar Daly and William J.

Fellowship Dinner Held

Crusade Series Of Baptists Receives A Good Response

The pastors, evangelists and song leaders of nine Baptist churches in Harmony Association, co-operating in the simultaneous Evangelistic revival meetings met at the Calvary Baptist church, Tuesday at 12:00 noon, for a fellowship dinner provided by the women of Calvary Baptist church. After the dinner, reports from the nine churches showed a total Sunday School attendance at 1,844 last Sunday. There has been a total of 27 additions to the churches the first two days of the campaign.

Another Report Friday There will be three more fellowship dinners for all the Baptist pastors in Harmony Association, all the visiting evangelists and song leaders. There will be one at the East Sedalia Baptist church, Friday, April 14, at 12:00 Noon. The next dinner will be at noon Monday, April 17 with the Baptist church at Hughesville. The fourth and last dinner will be at noon Friday, April 21 at the First Baptist church in Sedalia. There will be fellowship, and interesting reports at each of these meetings. This series of meetings will continue through Sunday, April 23. From all reports and indications now according to those participating, this will prove to be one of the greatest soul winning and evangelistic movements for many a year.

Look how you save with Dynaflo

FIRST thing you notice, of course, is the bother and effort Dynaflo Drive* saves.

Next, that Dynaflo saves you physically—after long trips you're less tense and tired, more relaxed.

But then, as the miles pile up—and this comes from cold, recorded fact after Dynaflo's two years of public operation—you spot savings you hadn't expected...

You save on tires—because power application is steady, even. On clutch expense—the usual friction clutch is gone.

You save on transmission maintenance, and the rear-axle expenses likely to go with it. And the way your engine is oil-cushioned against normal shocks and strains shows up in less engine upkeep.

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

You may well discover another pleasant surprise, too.

We are getting a steadily mounting number of well-satisfied letters about gasoline mileage with Dynaflo cars.

The SPECIAL has shown some records little short of phenomenal. The SUPER is delivering mileage that compares most favorably with gear-shift cars. And the ROADMASTER more than holds its own with cars of its size and bulk.

In short, there's a lot more to please your budget in the 1950 Dynaflo than its new lower price. Refinements over the past two years result in savings that are sizable over the life of the car.

Knowing that, don't you want us to demonstrate the big side of Dynaflo—the utter smoothness of America's first oil-does-it-all drive?

Social Events

Miss Mossie Marie Saunders, daughter of Mrs. D. L. Saunders, 605 Madison street, Jefferson City, became the bride of Mr. William A. Isbell, son of Mrs. John Cocron, of St. Louis at 10:00 o'clock Saturday morning, at the First Baptist church in Jefferson City. The Rev. James F. Heaton read the single ring ceremony before an altar setting of Easter lilies and lighted white tapers in cathedral standards.

Karl Burkel at the organ played the nuptial music and accompanied Mrs. Delene Hickey who sang, "The Lord's Prayer," "Because" and "I Love You Truly." The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. J. C. Saunders, of Sedalia, chose for her wedding a dress of navy blue sheer with white and rhinestone trim with which she wore a hat of matching shade trimmed in gold, tiny white flowers and rhinestones. She carried a white Bible to which was attached a white orchid.

Miss Edith Fienstein, of Jefferson City, the bride's only attendant wore a street dress of chartrreuse shade with a corsage of spring flowers.

Mr. Morris F. Isbell, of Raytown, O., brother of the bridegroom, served as best man.

Miss Juanita Schulte, of Fulton, niece of the bride, lighted the candles.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the home of the bride's mother.

Mr. Isbell travels for the Vieting Truck line and the bride is bookkeeper for the Power and Light company in Jefferson City. The couple will reside in Jefferson City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Saunders, 1001 South Vermont avenue, attended the wedding.

Mrs. W. E. Scotten, formerly of Sedalia, writes friends she is now House Mother of the Tri Delta Sorority on the campus of the New Mexico University at Albuquerque, N. M. Mrs. Scotten, widow of the late Judge W. E. Scotten, left Sedalia recently for Albuquerque to be with her daughter, Mrs. Allen McMullen and son, Corcor.

The sorority has a beautiful new house which was opened January 1, this year. There are twenty-five young ladies, four house boys and one cook under Mrs. Scotten's supervision.

William Scotten, a son residing in Chicago, Ill., spent two weeks visiting with his mother, sister and brother at Albuquerque, returning to Chicago last Saturday.

CHURCH NEWS

The Ladies Aid of the St. Paul's Lutheran church will have its business and social meeting in the Sunday school room at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Hostesses will be Mrs. W. H. Harms and Mrs. H. J. Kuhlman.

The Woman's Guild of St. John's Evangelical and Reformed church of Florence met April 3, for a monthly meeting with 16 members and one visitor present.

The devotional was in charge of Mrs. Clarence Bremer.

Mrs. Ray Baughman, president presided over the business meeting.

The guild is entertaining Company I at the Missouri Training school at Boonville on Saturday afternoon, April 29, from 1:00 to 4:00 o'clock.

The meeting was dismissed with the repeating of the Lord's Prayer.

The next meeting will be on May 3, with Mrs. Glenn Mertgen and Mrs. Wilbert Rodenbach as hostess.

Republican Women Elect

President, Miss Rose Leibbrand; city vice-president, Kate Griffith; county vice-president, Mrs. Sena Schutt; treasurer, Mrs. J. B. Ginn; secretary, Mrs. Hazel Licklider.

The retiring president, Mrs. L. H. Hodges welcomed about 50 members and presented information regarding national Republican principles. Following the election of officers, Mrs. Hodges presented Miss Hazel Palmer, who installed the newly elected officers in a short ceremony. An open forum was held with many members taking part in the questions brought up for discussion.

The next meeting of the Pettis County Republican Women's club will be held the second Tuesday in May when committees and other appointments will be announced by Miss Leibbrand, and delegates elected to the state convention of the Federated Women's Republican clubs of Missouri which will be held in June.

Freddie Gehlken and "Moose" Greer, charged with petit larceny in the city police court, were both sentenced to 30 days in the city jail Tuesday afternoon by Judge Harry O. Berry. The two were picked up by the police Saturday evening and held for investigation.

They were accused of taking several shirts from Montgomery Ward Co. and J. C. Penney Co. store in Sedalia. Gehlken pleaded guilty to the charge, while Greer pleaded not guilty, and a hearing was held before Judge Berry in the Greer case.

W. A. McVey is President High School P. T. A.

Election Held at Regular Meeting; Talk by H. U. Hunt

W. A. McVey, 1607 East Broadway, was elected president of the Smith-Cotton High School Parent-Teacher Association for next year at the final meeting this year held Tuesday evening at the school. Other officers elected were: First vice president, Mrs. John Loague; second vice president, the Rev. J. W. Watts; secretary, Mrs. C. F. Scotten; treasurer, Gerhardt Jaeger, and chaplain, the Rev. Roy L. Bowers.

The program included a talk on "The School Situation" by Heber U. Hunt, superintendent of Sedalia schools; popular music by the Rhythmaires, directed by Miss Geraldine Teufel; a vocal solo by Don Broadbudd; and a tap dance by Dorothy Dey. Following the program and business meeting, members and visitors viewed the school work on display in the library.

Told of Building Program

Mr. Hunt, in discussing the building program now in progress, said that four years ago the limit, under existing laws, of 5% of the assessed valuation was voted. This amounted to $800,000. Plans at the time included a "dream school" to replace Broadway and Horace Mann, according to Mr. Hunt. The board of education was unable to go ahead with plans at the time because of scarcities and high prices. Hopes for federal building aid did not materialize. Because of the growing enrollment and the fact that some buildings were "fire traps" it was necessary to obtain the best deal possible and go ahead. The new school, as originally planned, at present prices would have required $500,000 of the $800,000 available, he stated.

High School Program

Since 5/12 of the grades in Sedalia are housed in the high school the board went more nearly "all out" for its building program. Mr. Hunt said The $304,000 addition will include a little theater which will seat about 250 people, to be built at the southwest corner of the building, a large shop room on the southeast, two class rooms and two large study halls on the second floor, both adequately lighted and eight additional class rooms on the third floor. These additions will make possible a junior college if there is a demand for it.

IN FASHION WHIRL—It was bound to happen. Singer Marguerite Piazza wears a "flying saucer" hat designed by Walter Florell in New York. The "saucers" look as if they might be battered down to double as earmuffs in cold weather.

later, Mr. Hunt said. A cafeteria, containing the latest type of equipment will be located thirty feet south of the building.

The speaker stated that the remainder of the $800,000 will provide an auditorium-gymnasium with connecting classroom on the west and two classrooms and a cafeteria on the east at Horace Mann; fireproofed stairways and hallways similar to those already installed at Whittier, at Horace Mann and Broadway; an auditorium-gymnasium at Jefferson school and classroom at Whittier, and a shop addition on the southwest corner at Hubbard.

Man Teachers Lost

In regard to the school levy, Mr. Hunt reminded the audience that he said in 1947 that if the levy failed the school system would lose twenty-five teachers. Instead, he said, fifty were lost, and only thirty-one of these were replaced. As a result, he said, there are no art teachers in the public schools and music is taught only half time. The high school has two industrial art teachers instead of three, and one music teacher instead of two and larger classes than we should have.

Salaries paid teachers in Sedalia are more than $600 per year less than the average salaries paid in the United States and more than $400 less than the average salary paid in first class high school in Missouri. Mr. Hunt declared. The average tax rate for schools in Missouri is $1.95, while that in Sedalia is only $1.29. He emphasized that if it were not for local married women who were able to qualify, Sedalia would not have teachers in its classrooms today.

Compiling Budget

The board of education, in compiling its budget for next year, had one of three choices, according to Mr. Hunt. These were: To operate on the revenue available, to operate as now with a deficit of about $35,000 paid out of our present balance; to provide the minimum for the additional enrollment next year and expand that deficit from eight to ten thousand dollars. The board voted to continue the present program and add possibly three or four teachers. Consequently, Mr. Hunt said, it will be necessary to spend forty or forty-five thousand dollars more than is taken in. "We have tried to give the town the best school we could on the money that we must have, Mr. Hunt said. "We are still in the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools," he said, in referring to Kansas City's school problems, "but," he emphasized, "it can happen here! It will happen, unless Sedalia finds some way to finance the schools!"

Officers Installed

The new officers were installed by Mrs. M. E. Green.

Numbers by the Rhythmaires, as announced by Leo Eickhoff, were "Basin Street Blues," "Quick Silver," with Miss Dey; "String of Pearls," with Don Broadbudd, soloist; and "John Silver."

Mrs. R. H. Rabourn, president, presided at the meeting. The invocation was given by the Rev. J. W. Watts, chaplain. Mrs. John Zulauf, program chairman, was in charge of the program.

The executive board, at a meeting earlier in the evening, voted to contribute $400 to the high school for new stage curtains for the auditorium. At this meeting, also, Mrs. Lloyd Kirkpatrick, Mrs. J. Eddie Duell, and the Rev. Mr. Watts were appointed to audit the treasurer's books.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Truman Has Changed Since He First Entered the White House

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON, April 12 — Five years ago today, Harry Truman stood uneasily in the cabinet room of the White House taking the oath as President of the United States. He was a humble man, imploring the Lord for guidance and the American people for help.

A lot has changed since then. The wars then raging on two continents are officially ended, though they continue unofficially without loss of life. The men who saw Harry Truman take the oath and who helped him during those first trying days are largely gone now. Bob Hannegan, who put his friend in the White House almost with his own bare hands, is dead, saddened by the fact that the President had turned his back.

Three secretaries of state have also come and gone — Ed Stettinius, now dead; Jimmy Byrnes, now bitter; and George Marshall, now retired. Many of the President's close friends in the Senate have disappeared from his table, and the coterie surrounding Truman has grown smaller and smaller. The palace guard is as tight as a drum.

Jealous Palace Guard

It will be for history to evaluate the wisdom of Truman's policies and the efficacy with which they are carried out. It is too early to judge them now. But one factor now moulding the results which historians later must evaluate is the White House circle and its jealousy toward the outside world.

This zeal to knock off any man who even remotely resembles a rival to the President is the most important fact in the political life of the nation today.

It has been responsible for alienation of one of the strongest members of the Truman cabinet, former secretary of agriculture Clinton P. Anderson, now senator from New Mexico. And it is causing friction between the President and the Vice President today.

Those who do not know the little band of zealots around Truman would scarcely believe it, but they have convinced themselves and him that Alben Barkley at the age of 72 is a candidate for President. Furthermore, they have cooked up a tortured theory that Barkley took a young bride in order to demonstrate to the world that he was hale, hearty and able to run. They also suspect that Barkley's many speaking engagements are to build him up for 1952.

The broad-gauged Barkley, though well aware of this coolness, has chosen to ignore it. On the surface, his relations with the White House remain the same. But the old cordiality, the personal warmth between him and Truman is no more.

Will Truman Run Again?

It is not known, even by Truman's intimates, whether he intends to run in 1952. But it is definitely known that the palace guard is itching to have him run. Apparently the lush life of Key West and the White House is something they hate to contemplate losing.

This was why one year ago, the White House was anxious to have Paul Hoffman bow out as EC Administrator. He was becoming too popular, was feared as a Republican candidate. Today he is not considered so popular and is being urged to stay on. This was also why a weak Democratic candidate was left in the race against Senator Taft in Ohio. For Taft would be an easier presidential candidate to defeat than Eisenhower; but he would have no chance of the nomination if defeated in Ohio.

Jealousy is carried to such extremes that ex-White House counselor Clark Clifford recently cancelled an engagement his wife had made with the Clinton Anderson family to go to the Cherry Blossom Festival together. The Anderson and Clifford daughters had once been Cherry Blossom queens, but Clifford feared it would put him in wrong at the White House to be seen with the ex-secretary of agriculture, who committed the grave sin of being willing to run for vice president.

Hurting Foreign Policy

The most important result of this White House jealousy is in the field of foreign affairs, where Dean Acheson recalls all too vividly what happened to Jimmy Byrnes when he tried to conduct foreign policy without constantly consulting the White House.

In fact, it was Acheson who had to straighten things out between Truman and Byrnes when Jimmy made the mistake of announcing from London that he would make a broadcast to the American people. Truman hit the ceiling. He wanted no foreign policy statements except his own made to the American people.

All during the Byrnes regime, Gen. Vaughan kept needling his chief. "People are talking about the Byrnes policy," he would say. "They ought to be talking about the Truman policy."

So only a few weeks after Byrnes' error in announcing a broadcast to the American people, a presidential cable went to General Marshall asking him to get ready to become secretary of state.

That is why Acheson's hands have been partially tied in defending himself from Senator McCarthy. He could have made a masterful presentation of the facts regarding other Presidents who withheld files from Congress, from George Washington to William Howard Taft.

And he could have been a brilliant, clarifying statement regarding the loyalty review boards and how they were staffed with Republicans. But he didn't.

Instead, Mr. Truman issued abrupt statements at Key West, ignoring the clarifying background arguments which would have materially helped the public understand the Truman-Acheson position.

A President is only as powerful as his public support. Congress knows this and begins to rebel the minute presidential popularity weakens. Today Truman's popularity was weakened — thanks largely to the band of jealous zealots around him in the White House.

Flying Saucers May be Part Of 'Nerve' War on Russians

By Bruce Bissot

The United States News, in a story that has all the earmarks of a carefully authenticated account, declares that "flying saucers" are real.

This doesn't square with official government statements, but the magazine gives a plausible explanation for the government's position.

The story says flying saucers are revolutionary aircraft combining features of fast jet planes and helicopters. They are said to conform to known principles of flying. The magazine adds they have been seen by "hundreds of competent observers," including high-ranking Air Force and Army officers.

It's pointed out that the U. S. Navy is itself building advanced models of a flying saucer type aircraft originally constructed and successfully test-flown by U. S. engineers back in 1942.

According to the most reliable witnesses of saucers in flight, they are circular in shape with a diameter of some 105 feet. They have what seem to be jet nozzles arranged around the saucer's outer rim. Their thickness is about 10 feet and they are built in layers.

Experts believe the nozzles, whose direction is variable, control the speed and course of flight. The saucers can climb straight up and can cruise at speeds ranging from 200 to 600 miles an hour. They can, it is presumed, land at speeds as low as 35.

In case this still all sounds like fantasy, U. S. News points out that highly trained scientists at the White Sands, N. M., proving ground for guided missiles, observed a saucer and tracked it for several minutes. They got reliable data on its size, speed, altitude and maneuverability.

Why, then, did the Air Force officially abandon its inquiry into the saucers and announce that thorough study had revealed no substance to any of the thousands and thousands of reports?

The magazine suggests the answer is that the Air Force knows where the saucers are coming from and is not concerned about them, as it would be if they were from Russia or possibly another planet.

The Air Force has denied emphatically that any secret project of its own is involved. But U. S. News notes that early experimenting with these revolutionary aircraft was done by the Navy, and that the Navy today gets millions of dollars for secret guided missile research, on which it gives no public accounting.

The conclusion is that our own Navy is responsible for this great mystery. Certainly the impression is gained that if U. S. naval experts are not responsible for the development, then some friendly power like Britain is. Britain, of course, is well-advanced in designing amazing new types of jet aircraft.

The average American has a right to be heartened by the prospect that radically different airplane designs on the flying saucer pattern offer promise of remarkable advances in the speed and safety of aviation.

But he ought to be almost as much gratified to learn that perhaps he hasn't been conjuring up Jules Verne style space ships after all. It's been the fashion of many seasoned observers to dismiss the flying saucer flurry as a sign of mass hysteria befitting the times. The ordinary citizen who may have spotted one of the things is beginning now to look fairly sane, if the U. S. News knows what it's talking about.

Fresh denials already have come from our military authorities all down the line. But they don't necessarily mean that this story is untrue. They may well indicate only that defense officials want to maintain substantial secrecy, while yet allowing enough information to leak out to keep Russia's nerves on edge.

Stretch Drive?

Congress, with three months' work behind it this year, has come to what is generally viewed as its halfway mark. And agreement is unanimous that this session has accomplished virtually nothing.

Of course, the same thing could have been said last season, but the lawmakers put on a burst of speed in the later months and ran off a creditable amount of legislation. Maybe we are in for another belated spurt this time.

If that comes to pass, it'll begin to look as if Congress has been influenced too sharply by the pennant-chasing tactics of the Boston Red Sox.

PAGAN PSYCHIATRY OFTEN DISRUPTIVE

We saw yesterday that many false guilts had to be discarded. The conscience can be taught to approve diametrically opposite things. I said to a Hindu one day, "Suppose you broke caste, and no one would know it?" "But I would know it, for my conscience would trouble me if I broke caste," he replied. His conscience would trouble him if he broke caste, and mine would trouble me if I kept caste. Conscience will stand guard over the values you put into your moral nature. It is important what value you put there. The conscience should be trained at the feet of Christ; only then is it a safe guide.

A word of warning must be uttered against pagan psychiatrists, who finding persons at conflict with themselves, suffering from split personality—with ideals high and conduct low—try to unify the persons on the level of conduct, dismissing the whole world of moral ideals. This usually results in greater disruption—disunity—for a new conflict is introduced at the level of the hand, or by a sick phrase of a pagan psychiatrist. Put out at the door, it will come back at the window. One such psychiatrist, a very outstanding man, urges women who are nervous and upset to find "a boy friend." Some of these women who had been given advice by this psychiatrist to practice adultery came in great distress to a ministerial friend of mine. Through him they found God, and are released and happy. The wife of this psychiatrist, divorced from him, because he naturally had acted on the advice he gave to others, came to this same friend, and she too found God and is radiant. The false advice given by this psychiatrist produced disunity in the personality, and broke up homes—his own included. The only possible level on which to be unified permanently is the level of your ideals. Everything else will let you down.

If you go to a psychiatrist go to one who has a Christian background and outlook. Such psychiatrists are the salt of the earth and help many to release.

O God, my father, I see that amid all the ways of men Thou hast a way—the way that is written into the nature of reality. Help me to find that way that I may live, for I cannot fumble this business of living. Time is too short, and living too serious. In Jesus name. Amen.

The Doctor Says—

Presence of Gallstones Raises Question of Operation

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.
 Written for NEA Service

Gallstones are most common after thirty and especially between forty and fifty. Three-fourths of all cases are in women. The stones lie in or near the gall-bladder, which is a pear-shaped pouch lying under the liver on the right side a short distance below the ribs. It holds liquid called bile and it empties this material down a small duct into the intestines.

Stagnation of bile in the gall-bladder may lead to the formation of stones. Overweight, wearing of corsets, occupations requiring a leaning forward position and sagging of the abdominal organs are believed to lead to such stagnation.

Lack of exercise, particularly when combined with too much fondness for food, also favors the formation of stones. Infection in the gallbladder may also play a part. Many persons with gallstones have an increase of a substance called cholesterol in their blood and cholesterol is present in most gallstones.

Gallstones may be present without causing any symptoms. The most common early symptom, however, is indigestion. There is often a vague feeling of discomfort in the abdomen, a sense of fullness, a good deal of intestinal gas as sometimes nausea and vomiting occur. Often there is pain in the region of gallbladder or under the right shoulder in the back.

Jaundice or a yellow color to the skin is not always present. A gallstone may get caught in the neck of the gallbladder or in the passageway going down to the intestines. When this happens there is severe pain called colic. The most important aid in diagnosing gallstones is the X-ray. Sometimes the stones can be seen in an ordinary X-ray picture; in many cases, however, a dye has to be given which fills the gallbladder and outlines the stones in a silhouette picture.

Factors Weighed

When gallstones are found the question comes up as to whether or not the gallbladder should be taken out by operation. This decision depends on how many attacks of colic there have been, what the symptoms are, whether there is infection present in the gallbladder, what the X-ray studies show, and the other things, such as age and physical condition. It would be fine if some method could be used which would dissolve the stones without operation, but as yet no way of doing this has been found.

Side Glances

Many people carry gallstones for years without severe symptoms, but there is always danger of discomfort or their general health may be injured. Treatment other than operation usually includes attention to diet, with special emphasis toward avoiding those foods which produce symptoms of indigestion (particularly fats), and a moderate amount of exercise.

Dr. Jordan will answer questions from his readers in a special column once a week. Watch for it.

Distant Star

THE STORY: Clemency Norton is a nursery governess to Syrie and Jon Amberley's small daughter. She is a home for her brother Piers in Algeria. The married couple is obviously dependent on Piers' generosity. While exploring the garden, Clemency and Baba meet Syrie and Jon who are in the nursery and are apparently in distress and are . . . Clemency to go to her quarters.

VIII

A LONE with Piers, Syrie turned back towards the house. They reached it in unbroken silence and climbing the three shallow steps which led up to the veranda, she saw . . . one of the garden maids.

Syrie Amberley looked cool, and perfectly so. When Piers said, "Well, here we are again, my dear—brother," she gave him a half-truculent glance. "You have missed me?" "There are various ways of missing people," he replied, without attempting to soften the bluntness of the words. "I rather wonder if you . . . me."

"Ah! But ever then you remembered what a mercenary woman I am. She smoked for a few moments in silence, staring across the garden, her eyes narrowed against the glare. Then turning her head, she gave him a direct, challenging look: "You dislike me, Piers—don't you?" "Intensely," he answered, without any trace of emotion.

She was not a sensitive woman; out something in that coldly impersonal announcement got under her skin.

"If you hated me it would make life almost endurable. At least it would. . . you are alive," he burst out. Then recovering one of her usual poses: "Hate is, after all, the end of the love-to-love."

He laughed. "I don't hate you, Syrie." "I certainly don't love you," she gave him an odd look. "How quit . . . and things?"

are! You don't know how I should love to see you forced to shed that armor. There must be a man inside it somewhere. I seem to remember—" Something in his in- . . . regard made her break off.

SHE shrugged her shoulders and rose, tossing the end of her cigarette away. "Since we have to live under the same roof, can't we at least be—friendly enemies?" "You know why you are here, Syrie. Don't forget the reason," he advised, and without waiting for a reply, turned and went into the house.

Syrie stood looking after him, her hands clenching and unclenching. Throwing oneself against a stone wall is not a pleasant pastime. She wondered savagely why every now and then she seemed forced to do it.

She was in a viciously angry mood, when a few minutes later, she entered the nursery; though from her smiling exterior it would have been difficult for anyone who did not know her to have guessed.

Syrie sat down on reflection of the smile on her lips in her ice blue eyes.

"I hope you feel that you are going to be happy, Miss Norton?" she asked with deceptive friendliness. "If you have any difficulty with the servants, or anything of that kind, remember that as far as the nurseries are concerned, you are the person to give orders and see that they are obeyed."

"Thank you; but I don't think I am likely to have trouble," Clemency replied, rather surprised. "Loulie and Ahmed both seem very willing to do anything I ask them to."

"Good. Servants can be so difficult!" Syrie jerked her shoulders impatiently. "As I told you, when I engaged you, I hate being bothered over nursery details. This is your unquestioned domain. Don't let anyone interfere with you—no even Jon! I suppose you will have some sort of itinerary for . . . and things?"

"Oh, yes, agreed Clemency. I shall begin with teaching Baba her alphabet, simple counting and the kind of thing—"

"Well, I shall leave it all entirely in your hands. And of course you will arrange with Loulie when you want time off. You can have a car one day a month, and sometimes oftener if you begin to feel you are serving a life sentence." She rose, surely the most easy of employers. Then hesitating: "There's just one thing—do you mind keeping to your own quarters?" She indicated the flower-filled square beneath the windows. "I don't like Baba wandering all over the place. You can get out on to the road by that door, and there are walks all about the Oasis."

"Of course, Mrs. Amberley. I'm so sorry to—sort of—bother you so," Syrie's smile faded. "The truth is—it's—well, just a little awkward. I like to keep Baba away from Colonel Amberley as much as possible, because really although he is quite sweet to her, I know he is bored with a child about the place." She looked at Clemency with a charming embarrassment. "Between you and me, Miss Norton, I don't think any house was ever built large enough to contain two families—especially such a born bachelor as Colonel Amberley is. By temperament he is actually a recluse—it he wasn't as rightlously fond of Jon, and had not been so worried about his health, I don't think anything would have induced him to let even us into his home. Again, strictly between ourselves, he almost dislikes women. You see—of course you won't let this go any farther—he was once terribly in love with someone." Then in a lighter tone: "The trouble for our sex is that they will fall for him. He can have very pretty manners, and that raises hope in the poor things. Kathleen used absolutely to be in wait for him, and the first girl I brought out made an absolute idiot of herself."

"You needn't worry, Mrs. Amberley," said Clemency quietly. "I shall see that Baba is kept away from her uncle."

Blueprint For Keeping Your Husband Happy

Ruth Millett

You won't have much husband-trouble if—

You can make him feel that he has the strength and wisdom and judgment to tackle any problem that comes along. His self-confidence may lean on your faith in him.

You can make him laugh out loud. Or just as good—he can make you laugh.

You can hit a happy medium in your relationship between too much dependency upon him and too little. This is one of the more difficult balances to achieve.

There is no trace of jealousy toward him for the kind of life he has because he is a man. That means you don't resent his job, his outside interests, his friends, or his masculine independence of spirit.

You share the children with him. Draw the children to you instead of gently pushing them toward him—and you're in for trouble.

Don't Resent Your Share of Marriage

You aren't resentful of your woman's role in life. If you hate the job of homemaker you can't expect your husband to have much respect for it, nor can you expect to be easy to live with.

You take the lead in making your home life stimulating. A man rarely thinks beyond the moment he enters his front door at night. It's as though he said each evening, "Well, here I am—what are you going to do about it?" That leaves it up to the wife to keep things interesting the way a hostess is responsible for keeping a party going.

You credit him with having as high ideals and as much strength of character as you credit yourself with having. A nagging, suspicious wife is often that way simply because it doesn't occur to her that she owes her husband as much trust as she expects from him.

Widely Known Minister is to Address Kiwanis

Dr. Ben Morris Ridpath, minister of the First Methodist church at Joplin, Mo., who has traveled extensively both in the United States and abroad, will be the guest speaker at the regular Kiwanis luncheon on Thursday, April 13. Herbert Schrankler, recently elected president, will preside.

Dr. Ridpath

Dr. H. U. Campbell, of Kiwanis, received an advance press release concerning him which says:

Dr. Ridpath has been minister of First Methodist church, Joplin, Missouri since May 1939, having been called to his present pastorate from St. Louis where he was a minister for 11 years. Since graduating from the University of Minnesota in 1928 he has served 3 churches, including First Church, Joplin, one of the largest Methodist churches of Missouri. After coming to St. Louis in 1928 Dr. Ridpath studied at Eden Theological Seminary of Webster Groves for two years.

In recognition of his accomplishments in the ministry, Central College, Fayette, Missouri conferred upon him the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity in 1941. For ten years, Dr. Ridpath's sermons have been broadcast over

Presents Bill On Vacations

WASHINGTON, April 12—(AP)—Senator Douglas (D-Ill.) Tuesday introduced two bills aimed at cutting down the vacations and sick leaves of federal employees.

One bill would reduce from 26 to 20 working days a year the vacations now given most government workers outside the postal service. Their sick leave would be cut from 15 to 12 days.

At the same time, the vacations of postal workers would be raised from 15 to 20 days and sick leave from 10 to 12 days.

The second, alternative bill also would equalize sick leave but base vacations on the length of an employee's service. Those with less than three years service would get 10 days or two weeks. After three years service, the vacations would be increased to 15 days and after 10 years service, to 20 days.

In 1947 he was appointed to serve as a delegate to the Ecumenical Conference, a world-wide council of Methodists which meets every 5 years, and which met that year in Springfield, Mass.

In July of 1949, Dr. Ridpath was a member of a party of 25 ministers from various parts of the United States who flew to Great Britain to study economics, social and religious conditions in England under the Labor government. During this visit, the American visitors were shown every courtesy, interviewing several members of the King's cabinet, the Dean of Canterbury, the President-elect of the British Methodist church, Labor leaders and members of both the House of Lords and Commons.

Dr. Ridpath came back to America on the American Lines' Marine Flasher which carried some 200 immigrant passengers on their way to America. Since his return Dr. Ridpath has been telling American audiences of his observations and experiences, and has delivered more than 50 addresses on Socialist England.

Give Priority to Foreign Aid

Senate Action on Civil Rights Bill Be Sidetracked

WASHINGTON, April 12—(AP)—President Truman's legislative chieftains agreed—at his urging—Tuesday to sidetrack senate action on a controversial civil rights bill to give priority to a foreign economic aid measure.

Senate majority leader Lucas of Illinois announced this decision after meeting with the Democratic policy committee. Earlier in the day he and Vice President Barkley discussed the legislative timetable at a White House conference with Mr. Truman.

They told reporters the President had said the Marshall Plan legislation is "more important at this time than any other."

But Senator Wherry (R-Neb.) asserted that the Democrats were only seeking to delay a showdown on the civil rights fight until after their party primaries in the south are "out of the way." He told newsmen that the Democrats were only making a "gesture" in promising to bring up a proposed fair employment practices bill at this session which is due to end July 31.

Lucas, however, had declared earlier that the FEPC bill will be brought up as quickly as possible despite the certainty of a filibuster by Southern Democrats.

"We are not, under any circumstances, dragging our feet on FEPC," Lucas said.

"All They Want in Fight" Senator Russell (D-Ga.), leader of the Dixie opposition forces in the civil rights clash, said it was "immaterial" to his colleagues when the bill is brought up.

"We'll give them all they want in the way of a fight, I'm sure," Russell added.

Nevertheless Lucas predicted "We are going to have a very good record in congress when we finish." He recalled that the administration forces "were in the same position last year when a lot of people said we were not going to get anywhere."

Lucas reported that Mr. Truman was "pretty well satisfied" with the legislative progress thus far.

Increased Social Security benefits.

Extension of the rent control law.

Reduction of some excise taxes

Increased borrowing power for the Commodity Credit Corporation which carries out the government's farm price support operations. Lucas also predicted that congress would let about 90 percent of Mr. Truman's 21 government reorganization plans go into effect.

C. of C. Awards Given to Two For Courtesy

Both Surprised To Know They Had Been Chosen

When a woman is so surprised she can't talk it is really something, but that was just the way Mrs. Lola Farley, wife of Charles W. Farley, 1601 West Ninth street, was Tuesday afternoon when a group from the Chamber of Commerce walked into Connor-Wagoner's, women's dress shop, and presented her with a check and a courtesy award for the first quarter of the year. She can't, even now, seem to figure out why she was selected for such an award and maybe that is one of the reasons she won it. Being nice to people is such a part of her all of the time that she doesn't even realize it.

Mrs. Farley, who was Lola Bruns, was born in Cole Camp, one of 11 children, and came to Sedalia when a child. On November 25, 1925 she was married to Mr. Farley, who is employed at the Missouri Public Service office, and they have one son, Kenneth. After Kenneth finished high school he was in service for awhile but is now back home and doing carpenter work.

Has Fine Voice
Several years ago, during the war, Mrs. Farley went to work for Connor-Wagoner's and is still there. A slim little blonde, with always a smile and a friendly manner.

But Mrs. Farley is widely known for something else besides her ability as saleswoman. She has a beautiful voice and gives of her talent freely. For all occasions, when she is called upon, she sings.

Everett Stumpf
Everett Stumpf, 1000 West Tenth street, was the man winning the courtesy award for the first quarter of the year, and was presented a certificate and a check Tuesday afternoon at Hoffman's Hardware store where he is employed. The check was presented to Mr. Stumpf by Harry Naugel, director of the merchants' division of the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Naugel was accompanied by John F. Zander, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Stumpf was reared in Sedalia and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Stumpf, who now reside on route 1, Ottaville. He was married on July 8, 1913 to Miss Sylvia Dyer, who formerly worked at the Howard Roberts' store. Mr. and Mrs. Stumpf have a 14-month-old daughter, Virginia Mae.

Was In Air Corps
For the past four years Mr. Stumpf has been employed at the Hoffman Hardware store and prior to that spent three and one half years in the Army Air Corps. He is a member of the American Legion, Post 342, of which post he was adjutant for two years.

When the group entered the store Tuesday afternoon and started toward the rear of the store, Mr. Stumpf, who has a quiet, unassuming manner, spoke to them, but went on with his work in the front of the store. He didn't know what to think when he was called back. He thought the photographer was just going to take a picture of the store.

Meeting of Women Opens

The ninth annual meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of Methodist churches of the Southwest Missouri Conference opened this afternoon at the First Methodist church with two hundred delegates and more than one hundred others attending the opening session.

Mrs. W. L. Perryman, of Marshall, president of the conference,

Our Cadillac ambulance is always in complete readiness to answer any emergency call... or to convey a convalescent safely home.

Equipped with every facility for transporting the injured or sick, this ambulance is available to ALL at a cost that barely covers operating expense.

presided over the afternoon meeting.

A banquet will be held at 5:30 o'clock this evening at the Christian church at which time Mrs. J. D. Bragg of St. Louis will be the speaker. She will talk on "The Place of Woman in Our Church."

Dr. M. Earle Collins will give the address of the evening service which will start at 7:30 o'clock, on the subject, "The Moslem World." Dr. Collins is president of Tarkio college and president of the State Council of Churches.

publicans hanging from his belt. The President can't go all out in his attacks on Congress as he did against the Republican controlled 80th. This time it is a Democratic Congress — even though it is at times dominated by Republicans and southern Democrats who oppose much of his program.

To Defend Acheson
Mr. Truman apparently will make a vigorous defense of secretary of state Acheson and the state department, he will be on the defensive and not on the offensive as he was in 1948.

The President will be able to point to enactment of part of what he calls his "Fair Deal" program. But much of it remains bogged down in the halls of congress. Some of the promises he made in 1948 aren't much nearer fulfillment than they were then.

How Mr. Truman handles himself within the next few months may have much bearing on the outcome of the November elections. He will be watched closely by friend and foe alike.

Office Closed Thursday

The local office of the state division of welfare, Second street and Lamine avenue, will be closed all day, Thursday, in commemoration of Thomas Jefferson's birthday.

Baseball at Housel Park This Sunday

Teen-age Blues Will Play a Kansas City Team

A baseball game between the Teen-age Blues of Sedalia, sponsored by the Northeast Athletic club and the Armour-Troost Motors of Kansas City will be held this Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at Housel park.

The Teen-age Blues are made up of boys between the ages of 15 to 18 years, whereas the Kansas City team ages will run between 18 to 21 years of age.

Even though the ages of both teams differ the game should be a thriller because the Blues have plenty of experience tucked under their belts, the same as the Kansas Citizens.

The Blues' manager is "Chuck" Vaught and his assistant is Joe Fisher, who pitches and plays outfielder and is a good hitter. Roland Snavely and Elmer Lane are the coaches, who provide the boys on tips on how to play the game of baseball.

This will be the first baseball game played in Sedalia this season.

Crowd to Get Baby Chicks

All of a sudden, about one thousand Pettis countians and city folks in Sedalia, became chicken raisers.

This morning, that many people, who previously clipped coupons from last Sunday's Democrat-Capital, went down to Ivan Berry's feed store, 210 West Second street, with their shoe boxes and other containers to receive free baby chicks, 10 to a person.

A large crowd of eager people gathered at the store before it was opened, and when the line started to move, over 4,000 chicks were handed out in about a half hour.

Mr. Berry said 7,000 chicks were given out this morning, in addition to another 2,700 chick orders, which will be filled next Wednesday. It seemed as if more people showed up than anticipated, those who didn't receive chicks this morning, left their containers with their name written on a piece of paper inside the containers. They will have an opportunity to receive chicks next week.

The peak of the crowd was around 9:30 o'clock this morning, when people formed a line three and four abreast, which extended about two blocks long.

They were Gene Hubbart, Des Moines, Iowa, whose case was set for Saturday, April 15, and Don E. Dodermer, St. Louis, whose case was set for April 17.

To Attend Congressional Dinner
JOPLIN, Mo., April 12.—(AP)—Eugene D. Chankey, a senior at Branson high school and cadet in the civil air patrol, has been invited to the annual congressional dinner in Washington, May 25.

Col. H. Chris Oltman of Joplin, commander of the Missouri wing of the patrol, said Chankey would make a short speech reporting on his exchange trip to England last summer.

Paid for Wolf Scalps
The County Court, today, approved a warrant for $28.00 for seven young wolf scalps taken to the court by Bruce Richey and Joe King, Jr. The bounty on the young wolf scalps is $4.00 each. The scalps were taken to the office of County Clerk James Green.

Sentenced to Prison
Sammy Cole, 111 East Pettis street, charged with forgery, appeared before Judge Dummitt Hoffman in circuit court, this morning, pleaded guilty to second degree forgery. He was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary.

Traffic Case
Troy H. Pfletcher, Green Ridge, charged with careless and imprudent driving, pleaded guilty in Magistrate Court and was fined $25.00 and costs by Acting Magistrate J. C. McCloskey.

He was arrested by the State Patrol.

Court Issues Letters
Letters of administration in the estate of Mrs. Lillis Manning, who died March 22, were issued today to her daughter, Mrs. La Verne M. Higdon of near Beaman. The letters were issued by Judge A. M. Harlan of Probate Court.

Special Assembly
A special assembly was held at Smith-Cotton high school Tuesday afternoon, in order to give the students a chance to see the three main side shows, which were presented in the recent S-C carnival.

The shows were boy minstrel, boys' follies and a midget minstrel.

Elimination Of Candidates

The candidates for presidents of the senior council and of the junior council have been eliminated to two in each council.

Bob Stanley and Gene Williams are candidates for the senior council, and Gene Watts and Shirley Kirkpatrick are candidates for the junior council.

The final election will be held in both divisions Tuesday with the winners becoming the two presidents, and the runner-ups, the vice presidents.

The winners will replace Bill Franklin, student council president in the senior high, and Leo Eickhoff, vice president; Charles Walch, junior high president, and Jimmy Shy, vice-president.

Pat Dunn to Sing In Sedalia April 16

Pat Dunn, well-known Kansas City singer, will appear in person at the Smith-Cotton auditorium on Sunday, April 16. Mr. Dunn will give two concerts that day, one at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon and one at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

At various times Mr. Dunn, whose radio program may be heard every morning from Kansas City, has given concerts in Sedalia and is a favorite with people here. The concerts Sunday are sponsored by the New Sedalia Post, No. 342, American Legion.

Hold up Proxy Soliciting Letter

ST. LOUIS, April 12.—(AP)—A dissatisfied group of Missouri-Kansas-Texas railroad stockholders agreed today to hold up further circulation of a proxy soliciting letter until it is approved by the Securities and Exchange commission.

The group, which calls itself a stockholders' protective committee is headed by Howard D. McGeorge of Summit, N. J.

Two Truck Drivers Released on Bonds

Two truck drivers, arrested by the State Patrol for having overweight loads on their trucks, were released on bonds of $100 for their appearance in Magistrate Court. The bonds are equivalent to fines of $90.00 and costs of $10.00 each.

They were Gene Hubbart, Des Moines, Iowa, whose case was set for Saturday, April 15, and Don E. Dodermer, St. Louis, whose case was set for April 17.

Henning is to Meet McClain Here Tonight

Hope to Resume The Regular Wednesday Night Mat Events

WRESTLING SCHEDULE

Main Event
Lee Henning vs. Mayes McClain
Buffalo, N. Y. vs. Haskell Institute
Two falls out of 3—90-minute limit.
Semi-Weekly
Tommy O'Toole vs. "Tiger" Tasher
Boston, Mass. vs. New York City
Two falls out of 3—45-minute limit.
Opening Event
Sonny Myers vs. Walter Sirois
St. Joseph, Mo. vs. Montreal, Canada
One fall with a 30-minute time limit.

Time: Wednesday, 8:30 p.m.
Place: National Guard Armory.
Referee: Jack Hader, Kansas City.

There will be a wrestling match at the armory tonight starting at 8:30 o'clock, in which three events will be held. Each event, according to Promoter Pearl Christy, could be classed as a feature from the lineup of the contestants.

Plenty of Action

In the main event Lee Henning, Buffalo, N. Y., and Mayes McClain, Haskell Institute, will clash for the best two falls out of three, 90-minute time limit. Henning has been making a record in the central area the past several months and most recently had a terrific match with Bobby Bruns at Kansas City, Kansas.

McClain is a former athlete of Haskell and a tough opponent for any mat man. He is most anxious to get a good start in this area and hopes to beat Henning. "Tiger" Trasher, New York City will without a doubt prove something of a battler for his rival from the east, Tommy O'Toole of Boston, Mass. This is a two out of three fall match with a 45-minute limit and the feeling between the two is "anything but love" according to Christy.

Opening Event

Opening the wrestling entertainment tonight will be a one-fall event between Sonny Myers of St. Joseph, Mo., and Walter Sirois, Montreal, Canada. It has a 30-minute time limit. Promoter Christy announced today he hopes to be able to carry on each Wednesday night from now on inasmuch as the shortage of wrestling talent has been met. Practically all of the wrestlers who have been out of circulation because of injuries are back in the whirl.

Jack Hader of Kansas City will referee.

Police Board of K. C. Fires Back At its Critics

Wire Governor an Impartial Inquiry Be Welcomed

KANSAS CITY, April 12—(P)—The Kansas City Board of Police Commissioners fired back at its critics Tuesday night and telegraphed the governor a pledge that "all laws will be rigidly enforced."

The telegram, signed by four out of five members of the board, came in the wake of two other communications to Gov. Forrest Smith since the slaying of Charles Elmaggio and Charles Gargotta here last week.

Mayor William E. Kemp wrote the governor Monday asking a thorough investigation of law enforcement here. Monday night the city council passed a resolution asking a similar investigation to forestall "further gang murders."

The Missouri governor appointed the police board.

Tuesday night's telegram to Jefferson City was not signed by Mayor Kemp. Members who affixed signatures were J. L. Milligan, president; Hampton Chambers, vice-president; R. Robert Cohn, treasurer; and Sheridan Farrell, a member.

"We express to you our thanks and appreciation for the confidence you have expressed in the appointed members of the Kansas City's board of police commissioners," the telegram stated.

"A resolution adopted by the City Council of Kansas City, addressed to you, asking an investigation of law enforcement in Kansas City, Missouri, has been brought to our attention. Apparently the City Council acted upon this resolution without consideration of the facts. If the facts had been investigated they would have shown the inferences and statements made in the resolution were not true."

Invite Investigation

"Either the resolution was conceived in a moment of hysteria or was a planned political effort, which embarrasses the governor and the police department in their efforts to solve two murders recently committed."

"The appointed members of the Kansas City Board of Police Commissioners invite any fair and impartial investigation. The records of enforcement are public and can be investigated by any citizen. These records will show there has been no let-down in the enforcement of all laws. Records show spot murders have been committed from time to time before and during home rule and since the department was returned to state control."

"Mayor Kemp is a regular member of the board of police commissioners under the state law governing the police department of Kansas City, Missouri, and is not an ex-officio member. The same responsibility rests on him as on any appointed member of the board. The minutes of the meetings of the Board of Police Commissioners of the years Mr. Kemp has been mayor of Kansas City reveal that he has attended only eighteen meetings out of a total of 184 held by the board. The record also shows nine gang murders have been committed during the years Mayor Kemp has

Barkley for Support to Israel

KANSAS CITY, April 12—(P)—Vice-President Alben Barkley said Friday night Americans should support the new nation of Israel to help create a new force for peace in the world.

"We should all help foster the conceptions of Democracy and the dignity of man as they now prevail in Israel," said Barkley in a speech before the Jewish Federation.

Earlier Barkley visited his father-in-law, Roy W. Rucker, in St. Luke's hospital. Rucker is convalescing there from an illness.

Barkley was scheduled to depart by train tonight for St. Louis, where he will catch a plane for Lexington, Ky.

been a member of the Board of Police Commissioners.

"Yet this is the first time he has raised his voice. The murders and dates: Tom Kelley, April 20, 46; Fred Renegar, Jan. 10, 47; Mary Bono, July 11, 47; John Mutolo, Oct. 6, 47; Mike Licausi, April 14, 48; Wolf Rimann, March 24, 49; and the Binaggio, Gargotta murders last Wednesday night.

"Since the two members of the board appointed by you have served there have been only two spot murders, those which occurred last Wednesday night. The killing of Wolf Rimann occurred several weeks before your appointees were named or took office. We again assure you that all laws will be rigidly enforced and that your instructions covered in your telegram of April 6, will be fully carried out." (end text telegram).

In his telegram of April 6, Gov. Smith requested the board to make an all-out effort to track down the slayers of Binaggio and Gargotta.

Bainbridge Colby is Dead

Was Secretary of State During Term of Wilson

NEW YORK, April 12—(P)—Bainbridge Colby, the late President Woodrow Wilson's secretary of state, died Tuesday night at the age of 80.

Colby died at his home in Bemus Point, N. Y.

His death was announced here by a friend of the family.

Colby was secretary of state from March 22, 1920, to the end of the Wilson administration, March 4, 1921.

As secretary he wrote the famous note refusing to recognize the Soviet government of Russia—and he never changed his opinion on the issue.

Thirteen years later, when the recognition was granted, Colby contended that nothing had changed.

"Our refusal was predicated upon the fact that Russia was an enemy state," he said.

Although he held the highest post in the cabinet under a Democratic president, Colby switched party lines almost more than any figure in American politics.

He started as a Republican in 1902, and served one term in the New York State legislature.

Then in 1912 he bolted with Theodore Roosevelt and supported the latter's bull moose campaign.

But he broke with "Teddy" in 1916, and campaigned for Wilson.

His experience with Theodore Roosevelt was almost exactly duplicated with Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Still a Democrat in 1932, he made a nation-wide speaking tour for FDR's election.

But less than a year later he had turned against the new deal, and in 1936 came out for the Republican candidate, Gov. Alfred M. Landon of Kansas.

He called the new dealers "the betrayers of the country" and proposed an anti-new deal coalition.

Boys Saved From Possible Drowning

BOONVILLE, Mo., April 11—(P)—Two small boys were saved from possible drowning yesterday by the quick work of a neighbor, George Lee, and help of the older boy. All are Negroes.

The boys are John Arthur, 5, and Ronald Lee, 2, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rowles. They wandered to the neighbor's yard and fell through the metal top of a 10-foot cistern containing 24 inches of water.

John Arthur held the smaller boy out of the water until Lee could lower a metal cable into the cistern. The boys clung to it and were drawn to safety.

Dance Honors to Maplewood Set

Ralph Thomas led his Maplewood community dancers through the "Cowboy Loop" on the stage of the Liberty theatre Tuesday night to win the 1950 Square Dance Championship title for this area. Dancers, in addition to Thomas, were Darlene Thomas, Edith Donath, Donnie Donath, Ruth Landes, Howard Turner, Mogene Peoples and Cecil Peoples.

Reed and Son, jewelers, sponsored the contest.

Other squares in the competition, winners of the preliminary contests which have been held each Tuesday night recently, were The "Fun and Laughter RYO Club" set with Paul Shippis calling, George Gorrell's Van Natta district set and the "Flat Creek 4-H Club" group with Jay Twenter calling.

Judges for the finals were Damon Hieronymus, James S. Reed, Pegee Hewitt Homan and Neil Reyburn all of Sedalia, and Steve Souttar of Marshall. Their decision was based 35% on audience applause, 30% on dancing, 20% on the caller and 15% on general presentation.

The square dance band was composed of Claude "Buck" Bratton, Woody Grimes and Warren Lind. Jimmy Glenn filled the master of ceremonies post.

A Russian note of protest handed to U. S. ambassador Alan Kirk charged that an American "Superfortress" flew 13 miles into Soviet Latvia and opened fire on intercepting Russian fighters. The plane, described by note as a B-29, was first sighted south of the Latvian port of Libava. The note claimed exchange of gunfire followed demand by Soviet fighters that the plane follow them in for a landing at a nearby airdrome. There is some speculation as to whether the "Superfort" might have been the Navy Privateer missing since last Saturday over the Baltic.

Sees Altitude Ills Exaggerated
DENVER—(P)—He probably is in for some arguments, but Dr. Robert B. Patterson, of Loveland, Colo., thinks the harmful physical effects of the high altitudes are greatly exaggerated—at least for the kind of altitudes Colorado has. Writing in the Rocky Mountain Medical Journal, Dr. Patterson listed mineral oil, sunburn lotion and hard candy as the only medicines a normal flatlander needs to offset symptoms of the altitudes here.

The mineral oil should be used to lubricate dried nasal passages, lotion to guard against sunburn which comes with deceptive swiftness in the rarefied air, and the hard candy to prevent throat dryness.

MACKENZIE'S COLUMN

By Dewitt Mackenzie
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The prime ministers of the new neighboring nations of India and Pakistan have signed a pact which they soberly agree has pulled their countries back from the verge of war.

After seven days of difficult discussions in New Delhi, Premier Nehru of India and Premier Liaquat Ali Khan of Pakistan achieved an agreement which may carry them far toward peace if it is approved by both parliaments and is implemented. The Indian parliament already has ratified it. This agreement apparently didn't attempt to deal with all the troublesome issues between the two great states. It was centered in the minority problems which have been producing so much bloodshed and destruction of property in both countries.

These problems of course stem from the fierce religious conflicts which have been waged between the Hindus and the Moslems from time immemorial. This strife was given fresh impetus by the separation of the great Indian peninsula into the two distinct nations. The division was based on the complexion of the populations in the various areas. That is to say, the Hindu territories were grouped together and the same was done with the Moslems, so far as possible. However, this resulted in a bad division of Pakistan—part of the nation being in Bengal and Assam on the eastern side of the Peninsula while the major portion is in the northwest.

Naturally it was impossible to make a clean-cut division of populations, and as a result many minority groups were left in both areas—Moslems in India and Hindus in Pakistan. Moreover, these groups were scattered, for not all the Hindus in Pakistan were gathered into one community, and the same was true of Moslems in India.

The result of this division has been much communal strife and minority groups have suffered terribly, both in loss of life and in destruction of property. Furthermore, minority groups seeking to leave an area and join their own kind in the other state, have in many instances encountered insurmountable obstacles.

The passage of time has served only to aggravate this dangerous situation, and it was mainly to deal with the minority issue that the two prime ministers got together. What they have achieved in the way of agreement is roughly this:

The pact guarantees the security of the Hindu minority in Moslem Pakistan, and the Moslem minority in Hindu India. Both minorities are to be accorded unhampered migration across the borders of the two dominions. Heavy punishment is provided for those provoking disorder. Both governments also are to step heavily on any propaganda which might arouse communal hatred. On paper it looks like a fine agreement. Whether it is really good depends, as previously indicated, on how well it is implemented by the governments. If it is carried out in the spirit in which the two statesmen made it, relations between India and Pakistan should improve immensely and relations between communal groups also should improve.

Other knotty issues remain to be solved. Some of them are economic, due to a bad distribution of resources in some instances. One of the hottest disputes revolves about the famous state of Kashmir. The peoples of this state are mainly Moslems and Pakistan claims that area, whereas the ruling prince is a Hindu and wants to join with India.

Perhaps with an easing of the communal tension, the feeling about Kashmir would cool off some.

CALF SCOURS?

If you are troubled with infectious white scours in young calves or foals ask for SQUIBB PENOVOXIL capsules the next time you are in our store.

These specially manufactured silver oxide capsules have been used successfully by thousands of livestock breeders to cut down the loss of valuable replacement or veal calves.

These men keep a supply of PENOVOXIL capsules on hand to give all newborn calves or foals—or to treat older calves and foals at the first sign of scouring.

Let us take care of your requirements the next time you are in town.

The First Niagara Honeymoon
 NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y.—(AP)—Aaron Burr's daughter, Theodosia, and her cotton-grower husband started it all. Theodosia and her wealthy bridegroom, says local historian Raymond Yates were the first honeymoon couple to visit the Falls.

They came here in 1801, three years before the bride's father, third vice-president of the United States, killed Alexander Hamilton in a duel.

Big League Players on Ailing List

Cards Have Three, Injured And Dodgers Have Four

By FRED HAYDEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

If all the ailing major league players were lined up together for a game today, you could field a fair country club.

They wouldn't all have to be wheeled out on the field, but each qualifies for membership in the United League. The Aching All-Stars could be their tag.

At least 15 athletes are on the current roster. Since seven are pitchers, a few would have to be shifted to other positions to round out a starting lineup.

The List

Here's the tale of the (adhesive) tape:

Player—Team—Position—Ailment:
Hal Newhouse, Tigers, P., Arm
Ralph Branca, Dodgers, P., Arm
Vern Bickford, Braves, P., Side
Al Brazle, Cardinals, P., Arm
Jack Banta, Dodgers, P., Intest
Don Newcomb, Dodgers, P., Arm
Tommy Stinson, Yankees, B., Shoulder
Johnny Mize, Yankees, B., Shoulder
Marty Marion, Cards, SS, Knee
Nippy Jones, Cards, B., Back
Jack Harlan, Cards, B., Groin
Birdie Tebbets, Red Sox, C., Groin
Frank Edwards, Cubs, OF, Groin
Steve Dembo, Dodgers, C., General

A few days ago, Ralph Kiner, home-run hitting outfielder of the Pirates, could have made the team, but his sprained wrist seems all right again.

Numerous others with stiff arms and what-not just failed to qualify.

Cardinals On List

Tebbetts suffered an injured finger in a game yesterday. Jones is probably out till June. He had a spinal operation last fall. Newhouse has a mysterious arm ailment. Barshman pulled a muscle on the left side of his groin Monday.

Mize can't throw properly because of a shoulder ailment dating back to August. Reynolds is getting over an aching arch in his left foot. Newcomb still claims his arm is sore. Edwards has a bad shoulder. Lembo needed a complete physical checkup.

Sports Thrills For Blind Kids

By Fritz Howell

COLUMBUS, O., April 12—(P)—A dozen kids, six blind and six partially blind, get their sports thrill of a lifetime April 28.

They'll bowl, as full-fledged contestants, in the 47th American Bowling Congress.

The members of the two teams, all students at the Ohio State school for the blind, don't expect to finish last in the big barrage, either.

The boys come from all parts of the state, but Columbus has adopted them as its own for the pin classic which opens here Saturday.

A dozen new shirts, 12 pairs of shoes, and a dozen new bowling balls were donated anonymously, as was the $81 entry fee. On top of that, various unknown donors showered $100 for equipment, 23 used balls and 31 pairs of bowling shoes for use on the two alleys at the school.

The boys will be taken to the state fairgrounds coliseum and returned to the school in free taxicabs, and will get a free dinner.

The six totally blind get one concession on the alleys during the ABC. They'll be allowed to use a guide rail to determine their position on the approach runway. The partially blind sextet asked no favors.

All the boys are of high school age, 14 to 17. In the five-man race the low scorers on each team will drop out after the first game, giving the substitute a chance.

Letters Awarded to Cagers of Fayette

FAYETTE, Mo., April 12—(P)—Twelve members of Central College's championship M. C. A. A. basketball team have been awarded letters by the faculty athletic committee.

The list of letter winners, announced by Coach Bob Vanatta, includes:

Fred Stephens, Chillicothe; Harold Brookhorn, Campbell Hill, Ill.; John Fairman, Springfield; Bob Ellis, Nagsuane, Mich.; and Don Lynch, Glasgow.

Cochran had the best free throw record in the country, one of the best of all time. Dean converted 186 to his 213 free throw attempts for 87.3 per cent. Ehlers ranked tenth in scoring in the nation with 550 points. Central's 2,230 points for all games was fourth in the country.

Big League Training Camp Briefs

TOPEKA, Kas., April 12—(P)—

Larry Jansen loomed today as Manager Leo Durocher's choice to hurl the New York Giants' opener next Tuesday against the Boston Braves.

Durocher indicated a week ago that Sheldon Jones would be given the honor of hurling the inaugural at the Polo Grounds. But Jones was whacked pretty solidly by the Cleveland Indians in a 5-inning stint yesterday.

Jones was charged with nine of Cleveland's 10 hits and gave up three runs. Jansen, on the other hand, has been rounding into form after a slow start and has always pitched well against the Braves. Cleveland won yesterday's game 6-1.

Neat One-Hitter

BALTIMORE, Md., April 12—(P)—Carl Erskine, who has been having his troubles this spring, selected an opportune moment to come through for the Brooklyn Dodgers.

With Ralph Branca and Jack Banta sidelined with ailments, Erskine boosted his stock with the Dodger manager, Burt Shotton, with a neat one-hitter against Greensboro of the Carolina league yesterday.

Erskine had a no-hitter until two out in the eighth. He faced only 31 batters, striking out seven and walking three. Erskine also got four hits in five times at bat as Brooklyn won 22-0.

Catcher Meets With Mishap

CINCINNATI, April 12—(P)—Gus Niarhos is the latest New York Yankee to meet with a mishap. The catcher was hit in the face by a thrown ball during yesterday's pre-game practice. It left a cut on his right cheek.

The Yankees beat Indianapolis 5-3 yesterday.

Suffered Split Finger

ROANOKE, Va., April 12—(P)—Boston Red Sox catcher Birdie Tebbetts may be unable to open the season behind the bat. He suffered a split finger yesterday and will be out for some time. The Sox are scheduled to play the Roanoke Red Sox, a Boston farm, here today.

Indians Beat Giants

TOPEKA, Kas., April 12—(P)—Manager Lou Boudreau today had a Cleveland pitcher who had gone an entire exhibition game.

But aside from that he was not cheering too strongly about his supposedly top grain pitching staff.

And even the distance Sam Zoladak went yesterday was not the regulation game. The left hander worked only seven innings as the Tribe beat the New York Giants, 6-1, in Wichita. Additional innings were called so both teams could catch the Topeka train.

Only two of Lou Boudreau's first line chuckers Bob Lemon and Early Wynn, look ready to start the American league season.

Boudreau hopes that Mike Garcia, Bob Feller and Gene Bearden will be ready, but he doesn't know.

Still Plays it Straight

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 12—(P)—The Detroit Tigers' George Kell played it straight late last season when fans asked him who'd win the American league title. He said the Boston Red Sox.

So the fans jumped down his

Conservation Meeting Tonight in Court House

Members of the Pettis County Conservation Commission will hold their regular meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the general assembly room of the court house.

Kenneth Hicks, a conservation agent of Jefferson City will be the principal speaker and will also show two moving pictures pertaining to wild life in the state.

Sportsmen and farmers, who are not members, are invited to attend the meeting and see the movies.

Famed Cue Artist Died of Heart Attack

PHILADELPHIA, April 12—(P)—

Andrew Ponzi, three-time winner of the world's pocket billiards title and one of the game's most popular players died yesterday in Hahnemann hospital. He was 47.

Ponzi was stricken with a heart attack two weeks ago.

His death came less than a month after that of another famed cue artist—in the same hospital. Ralph Greenleaf, 50, one of the top players of the game and 14-times world champion, died of a cerebral hemorrhage on March 15.

threat for disloyalty to his own team.

"This year I'm not making the same mistake," said George. "I'm picking Detroit—not just to keep the fans off my neck but because I think we have a good chance."

Still Unsigned

GAINESVILLE, Tex., April 12—(P)—The regular season is just a week away but Frankie Gustine still hasn't signed a contract with the St. Louis Browns.

Asked when he planned to have a conference with President Bill Dewitt, the third baseman replied: "I don't know, but I guess I had better get around to it soon. A pay check would come in handy."

Talk of Trading

HOUSTON, Tex., April 12—(P)—The St. Louis Cardinals and the Chicago Cubs once again have revived the talk about a possible trade.

Wid Matthews, Cub executive, said the club would trade either of its veteran catchers, Mickey Owen or Bob Scheffing, for a starting pitcher.

Redbird Manager Eddie Dyer declared he would not give a front line starting pitcher for either of the catchers.

Dyer added that no trade conference with the Cubs has been held nor does he have an appointment for one.

A Different Kind of Hunting

HOUSTON, Tex., April 12—(P)—The return to winning form of pitcher Bill Voiselle would lift considerable weight from the shoulders of Manager Frankie Frisch of the Chicago Cubs. But first, Voiselle must lift some of the weight from his midsection.

Big Bill, obtained by the Cubs from the Boston Braves for a reported $50,000 and infielder Gene Mauch, has reduced from 240 to 225.

Dutch Leonard, the Cubs veteran pitcher, asked Voiselle what he did during the winter to keep in trim.

"I hunted," said Bill. "Hunted for what?" asked Dutch. "Place to sit down."

Start Counting Too Soon

MEMPHIS, April 12—(P)—Manager Jack Onslow of the Chicago White Sox insists he can lick baseball's balk rule if the pitchers learn to follow his method.

"I keep telling the kids to count five," he said. "If they come to a full stop in their delivery and count five they won't have any balks called on them. But they start counting when they leave the hotel."

Pitched Near Perfect Ball

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 12—(P)—The Philadelphia Phillies' flag hopes were riding high today thanks to a sparkling six-inning no-hit performance by young Curt Simmons.

The lean lefthander, a $65,000 flop for three seasons, pitched near perfect ball for six innings yesterday against the Memphis Chicks of the Southern Association. Another southpaw, Ed Wright, worked the last three frames and permitted two hits. The Phils won, 9-0.

Red Sox Team Is Picked to Win Pennant

By Jack Hand

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., April 12—(P)—The Boston Red Sox look like the class team of the American League with awesome power and enough pitching to win the pennant after two close misses.

All they need is a swift boot out of the starting gate.

Joe McCarthy, away from the world series since 1943, figures to get the Sox off fast and slide home October 1, with a little to spare. Marse Joe knows he can't afford another lousy start.

Just as a warning, we handed out the same Red Sox pennant pick the last two years. Look what happened. Cleveland in '48 and the Yankees last summer didn't pay any attention.

Fine Pitching Staff

New York and Detroit probably will make the most trouble with their fine pitching staffs. The Yanks also have that "strong bench," to help in case of emergencies.

Cleveland has too many infield "ifs" despite prospects of great seasons by pitchers Bob Lemon and Mike Garcia. Lou Boudreau and Joe Gordon must come back to make the Tribe contenders all the way.

Philadelphia's sore arm epidemic cooled off the A's as a flag hope. If Joe Coleman and Dick Fowler are in serious trouble, they are in tough shape. The other clubs are just in there to fill out the race.

Here's the way it looks from here:

1. Boston.
2. New York.
3. Detroit.
4. Cleveland.
5. Philadelphia.
6. Chicago.
7. St. Louis.
8. Washington.

Over 50,000 Fans Attend Ball Game

DALLAS, April 12—(P)—The

Dallas baseball club returned to its home field today with a new Texas and minor league opening day attendance record set in a football stadium.

More than 50,000 persons turned out last night to watch the Eagles open the season with a 10-3 setback at the hands of Tulsa but many of those folks were lured to the Cotton Bowl by the appearance of nine former major league stars who played to the first Tulsa batter.

Dizzy Dean started on the mound for the old-timers and proceeded to walk Harry Donabedian, the first Tulsa batter, while Charlie Grimm, Charley Gehring, Travis Jackson, Home Run Baker, Ty Cobb, Duffy Lewis and Tris Speaker held down the positions in the field. Mickey Cochran was the catcher.

After this the official game was started with Donabedian batting again, this time getting a hit.

Dallas had hoped to fill the Cotton Bowl's 75,000 seats not only to break the Texas League opening day attendance record but to show that this city could support big league baseball.

While Dallas set a new minor league opening day attendance record it may not have beaten the all-time attendance mark. In 1944 Baltimore and Louisville played before 52,833 in a little world series game in Baltimore.

Just how many actually were in the Cotton Bowl hasn't been determined. The tickets have not yet been counted. But if all who bought tickets attended, the all-time minor league attendance record was broken. The total number actually sold was 54,151.

Washington, April 12—(P)—

"Bullet Bill Dudley is signing up for his seventh year of professional football, and his first with the Washington Redskins.

The former All-America from the University of Virginia signed a one-year pact for an undisclosed salary, the Redskins announced today.

Dudley was obtained by the Redskins two months ago from the Detroit Lions in a trade.

Dudley entered "pro football with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1942. He twice led the National League in ground gaining, in 1942 and in 1946.

Widmar Holds Out

Al Widmar of Dunmore, Pa., shows what he'll do to the next St. Louis Browns contract offer if it isn't at least $10,000.

Widmar, who made $8,000 with Baltimore last year, says the best Browns have offered is $7,000. Claiming the Browns' offer prevents him from earning a "decent" living in baseball, Widmar said: "If I don't get at least $10,000, I'll sue baseball in the courts the way Danny Gardella did." # Detroiters Lead Hockey Playoffs

Series Shifts To Toronto For Next Two Games

By Charles C. Cain

DETROIT, April 12—(P)—The Detroit Red Wings were off to a flying start in the final Stanley Cup hockey playoffs today and it looked as if the New York Rangers would have a hard time catching them.

The Red Wings, playing without their two star forwards, Ted Lindsay and Fordie Howe, whipped the New Yorkers 4-1 last night in a game that became one-sided after the first 40 minutes of play.

The victory put the Wings one up in the best-of-seven championship series which shifts to Toronto for games No. 2 and 3 on Thursday and Saturday nights. The pre-game 12-5 odds in favor of Detroit to win the series went up a couple of points.

Early Lead For Yorkers

The fast New Yorkers grabbed a one goal lead in the first period during which they skated rings around the Detroiters.

But the National Hockey League champion Red Wings surged back with a four-goal blitz in the second period to tuck the game away. After that, the Detroiters played strictly defensive hockey against the Rangers' futile efforts for a tally.

Hal Boyle COLUMN

By Cynthia Lowry
For Hal Boyle

NEW YORK, April 11 — Between Braille, record players and radios, a lot has been done to keep the blind informed and up to date — but there was one big gap unfilled.

That was the reasoning of young David Margolis, a young Brooklyn lawyer who abandoned the bar to do what he could to help the blind. So Margolis, who lost his own sight during an illness 12 years ago, dreamed up a radio program.

Sells His Idea
Then he took the harness of his gentle shepherd dog Cindy, came to Manhattan and sold his idea on the spot. A couple of weeks later, the premiere of the show on a New York independent station jammed the switchboard with enthusiastic telephone calls.

It's called "The Talking Magazine," a weekly half-hour digest of current periodical articles and a report on matters usually overlooked by news broadcasters and commentators but still of interest.

"Radio has been a wonderful thing for the blind," Margolis says, "because it's given us news, some interpretation and a sense that we can keep up with what's going on without having someone read to us. There are Braille and talking books — not enough, but some. We can hear radio music and plays. But there's no way we can keep up with what's going into the magazines unless some person reads it to us."

Margolis brought his brain child to station WNEW. Ted Cott, production executive, added some showman's flourishes. His main contributions were a decision to enlist Broadway stars as the "readers" and to put the show on tape — after using the stars in their leisure time.

Gets Cooperation
He made telephone calls to theater great up and down Broadway and got 100 per cent cooperation. The show started out late in March with Patricia Morison of "Kiss Me Kate," and "Death of a Salesman's" Mildred Dunnock, heading a star cast of readers. The next week it was Frederic March and other big names.

In the first few weeks, thousands of blind — and sighted — listeners were treated to a wide variety of subjects, ranging from a bit by Eleanor Roosevelt to staccato anecdotes by a number of columnists. Just about everything goes into the act — fashion notes, humor, oddities in the news and just plain interesting feature.

Margolis, associated with the Industrial Home for the Blind of Brooklyn, says the response has been greater than he expected. "After the first broadcast we had about 150 telephone calls about it here at the home," he said, "and lots more at the station. Blind people don't write letters very often — but we got a lot of fan mail from sighted people who also enjoy the program."

Television Beats Radio
CHICAGO—(P)—The New Chicago classified telephone directory is notable for two reasons. The publisher, the Reuben H. Donnelley Corp., says it is the largest ever printed in the U. S. And, for the first time, television listings (918) exceed radio listings (520).

For Ambulance Service, Ph 8

HOPEFUL—Eager-eyed Edgar Harry Rhodes wants very much to become a nephew of Uncle Sam, but he'll have to have an assist from Congress to do it. Edgar was adopted in Vienna by Sgt. David Rhodes, who brought him to his home in Pittsburgh, Pa. A technicality that would compel his return to Austria can only be overcome by a special act of Congress.
